THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Tuesday November 1, All Saints. This feast first honored martyrs. Later, when Christians were free to worship according to their consciences, the Church acknowledged other paths to sanctity. In the early centuries the only criterion was popular acclaim and the first papal canonization occurred in 993. The process now required to prove extraordinary sanctity took form in the last 500 years and celebrates the obscure as well as the famous—the saints each of us have known.

Wednesday November 2, The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day); we not only remember the dead, but we apply our efforts, through prayer, almsgiving, and the Mass, to their release from Purgatory. Praying for the dead is a Christian obligation and this custom dates back before Christ, as far as 2 Maccabees. During the entire month of November lists of names of those to be remembered are placed by the altar on which the sacrifice of the mass is offered.

SOLEMN MASSES FOR THE DECEASED

AT ST JOSEPH PARISH

Tues., November 1 - All Saints

Wed., November 2 - All Souls of the Faithful Departed

NOVENA OF MASSES FOR OUR DECEASED LOVED ONES

Wednesday, November 2 to Thursday, November 10.

Please include names of departed relatives and friends in our Memorial Book (on table in front of pulpit).

NEW INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING CATHOLIC BURIAL

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith has deemed opportune the publication of a new Instruction, with the intention of underlining the doctrinal and pastoral reasons for the preference of the burial of the remains of the faithful and to set out norms pertaining to the conservation of ashes in the case of cremation.

- Following the most ancient Christian tradition, the Church insistently recommends that the bodies of the deceased be buried in cemeteries or other sacred places.⁴ In memory of the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord, the mystery that illumines the Christian meaning of death,⁵ burial is above all the most fitting way to express faith and hope in the resurrection of the body.⁶
- The Church raises no doctrinal objections to this practice, since cremation of the deceased's body does not affect his or her soul, nor does it prevent God, in his omnipotence, from raising up the deceased body to new life. Thus cremation, in and of itself, objectively negates neither the Christian doctrine of the soul's immortality nor that of the resurrection of the body.¹³
- The Church continues to prefer the practice of burying the bodies of the deceased, because this shows a greater esteem towards the deceased. Nevertheless, cremation is not prohibited, "unless it was chosen for reasons contrary to Christian doctrine".¹⁴
- When, for legitimate motives, cremation of the body has been chosen, the ashes of the faithful must be laid to rest in a sacred place
- The conservation of the ashes of the departed in a domestic residence is not permitted.
- The ashes may not be divided among various family members and due respect must be maintained regarding the circumstances of such a conservation.
- In order that every appearance of pantheism, naturalism or nihilism be avoided, it is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful departed in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way, nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry or other objects. These courses of action cannot be legitimized by an appeal to the sanitary, social, or economic motives that may have occasioned the choice of cremation.

Excerpt from the Instruction Ad resurgendum cum Christo regarding the burial of the deceased and the conservation of the ashes in the case of cremation. Full text of the instruction is available at www.Vatican.va
