FEAST OF THE WEEK

Our Lady of the Rosary

*In thanksgiving for the Christian naval victory over the Turks at Lepanto on October 7, 1571. The Turks were battling to bring Europe under the Islamic Caliphate. Encouraged by Pope St. Pius 5th crew members on more than 200 ships prayed the Rosary in preparation for the battle and Christians throughout Europe gathered in their churches to invoke the Virgin Mary against the daunting Turkish forces. A Christian victory considered by many to be miraculous. Our Lady Pray for Us!

From The Parish Priest

MIRACLES: FAITH AND WORKS

The Apostles ask Our Lord to “increase our faith!” His reply is “if your faith were even as meagre as a tiny seed, you could tell a tree to uproot itself and be planted in the sea, and it would obey you!”

Before asking ourselves what Our Lord means by this answer, we need to find out what the Apostles mean by their question. At first it may seem that they are asking for faith in God, i.e. belief in Him. But it is not so much belief in God that they want as trust in Him to help them to work miracles, as Our Lord’s words to them show us. It seems from Our Lord’s reply that the Apostles are eager to work miracles. If we cast our minds back to the beginning of chapter 10 in St. Luke’s Gospel, there were seventy two disciples sent by Our Lord to preach in His name, who came back rejoicing that they had not only preached in His name, but had worked many miracles in His name. On that occasion Our Lord had warned them not to glory in miracles, but rather to rejoice that their “names were written in the Book of Life”. He goes on to tell a parable to the Twelve at this point, about the servant who, after ploughing his Master’s fields must still serve his Master’s meal before himself being allowed to eat. “Must the master be grateful to his servant for doing what he was told to do?” This parable only makes sense if it refers to the Apostles’ motive in wanting to work miracles. They remembered the seventy two coming back rejoicing from their miracles, and maybe they wanted to do the same so as to get some credit among the people. Hence Our Lord’s warning. Just as He had told the seventy two disciples to “rejoice instead that your names are written in the Book of Life”, so now He says that the Twelve should not look for glory if they do any great works in Christ’s name. If they are doing what they have been told to do, should they expect any praise? Aren’t they just like servants who cannot expect to be praised for doing their duty, even if that duty is hard! So with the Twelve, He says, don’t ask for the kind of faith that will help you to work miracles if you only want it for your own glory. That will do you no good, and you won’t be able to work such miracles anyway!

Only a desire simply to do God’s will leads to working miracles. But do miracles really happen? They still do, though rarely! Or at least that is how it seems to most of us. We can sometimes be aware of situations which seem impossible to turn out well, and yet they do. This can be miraculous, though not sensational. Sensational miracles are certainly rare.
