THE SACRED LITURGY THIS WEEK

Tuesday, Sept 13th, St. John Chrysostom, Doctor of the Church, was ordained Bishop of Constantinople in 398. He was a gifted preacher who reformed the liturgy and insisted that his people should attend Mass frequently. His criticism of vice made him numerous enemies resulting in banishments and much hardship, but nothing could overcome his cheerfulness and his consideration for others.

Wednesday Sept 14th, Exaltation of the Holy Cross. St. Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulcher over what was believed to be the tomb of Jesus. During the excavation, workers found three crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when its touch healed a dying woman. The cross immediately became an object of veneration. To this day Catholic and Orthodox churches celebrate the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

Thursday, Sept 15, Our Lady of Sorrows. This devotion has its roots in Sacred Scripture and in Christian piety, which always associates the Blessed Mother with her suffering Son. Today's feast was introduced by the Servites in order to intensify devotion to Our Lady's Sorrows. In 1817 Pius VII suffering grievously in exile. When finally liberated by Mary's intercession he extended the feast to the universal Church.

Friday, Sept 16, Saint Cornelius was elected Pope in 251 during the persecutions and threats of Emperor Decius. He brought an end to the schism brought on by his rival, the first anti-pope Novatian. Saint Cyprian (200-258), was second in importance in the African church only to Saint Augustine. He was a close friend of Pope Cornelius, who he supported against the anti-pope Novatian. He argued that unity is grounded in the authority of the bishop, and among the bishops, in the primacy of the See of Rome.

CANONIZATION FOR MOTHER TERESA OF CALCUTTA

Mother Teresa, in all aspects of her life, was a generous dispenser of divine mercy, making herself available for everyone through her welcome and defence of human life, those unborn and those abandoned and discarded. She was committed to defending life, ceaselessly proclaiming that "the unborn are the weakest, the smallest, the most vulnerable". She bowed down before those who were spent, left to die on the side of the road, seeing in them their God-given dignity; she made her voice heard before the powers of this world, so that they might recognize their guilt for the crime of poverty they created. For Mother Teresa, mercy was the "salt" which gave flavour to her work, it was the "light" which shone in the darkness of the many who no longer had tears to shed for their poverty and suffering.

Her mission to the urban and existential peripheries remains for us today an eloquent witness to God's closeness to the poorest of the poor. Today, I pass on this emblematic figure of womanhood and of consecrated life to the whole world of volunteers: may she be your model of holiness! May this tireless worker of mercy help us to increasingly understand that our only criterion for action is gratuitous love, free from every ideology and all obligations, offered freely to everyone without distinction of language, culture, race or religion. Mother Teresa loved to say, "Perhaps I don't speak their language, but I can smile". Let us carry her smile in our hearts and give it to those whom we meet along our journey, especially those who suffer. In this way, we will open up opportunities of joy and hope for our many brothers and sisters who are discouraged and who stand in need of understanding and tenderness..

~ From Pope Francis Homily at Saint Peter's Square, 4 September 2016
