FATHER PAUL ON ANGELS

You will have noticed how in the revised translation of the Sanctus in the Mass, reference is made to the Lord God of Hosts. This is a reference to the vision of the Prophet Ezekiel, where he sees Almighty God surrounded by the Heavenly Court of Angels who are continually singing Holy, Holy, Holy. The Preface at Mass goes on to list the groups, or rather Heavenly Choirs, of Angels: Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Powers, Cherubim and Seraphim.

The word Angel is actually a Greek word meaning messenger and the Scriptures tell us of the Angels who serve at God's Throne and do His bidding. Visions of Angels are described by various Old Testament Prophets and we are told that they have awe-inspiring countenances and are often fearful to look upon (very different from the cute child like images on Christmas cards). We invoke Angels in various parts of the Mass, such as during the Confiteor and the Preface. We echo their Christmas song in the Gloria in Excelsis Deo, and in the Roman Canon we pray "Almighty God, command that these offerings be borne by the hands of your Holy Angel to Your Altar on high."

This Tuesday, we will be celebrating the Feast of the Holy Archangels and on October 2nd we keep the Feast of the Guardian Angels. We honour the Archangel Raphael, who represents the healing power of God. In the Old Testament he features in the book of Tobit where he guides the young Tobias to his future bride Sarah and assists him in vanquishing the demon Asmodeus. He later cures Tobias' blind father. Some scholars identify him as being the angel who stirred the waters of the pool in the Temple in which the sick sought healing (as mentioned in the Gospel story of the curing of the blind man).

Archangel Gabriel is the gentle comforter who helps the Prophet Daniel to discern his visions. He is the Angel who appears to Zachary in the Temple to announce the nativity of John the Baptist and, of course, he also appears to Our Blessed Lady at the Annunciation. The name Gabriel is from the Hebrew meaning Man of God.

Archangel Michael is the heroic defender of Heaven and the leader of the Celestial Armies. The Apocalypse of St John reports how he does battle with Satan and his armies and conquers them. His name means in Hebrew Who Is Like Unto God? Many of you will know the prayer Holy Michael Archangel which is sometimes recited after Mass.

Let us not forget to ask the assistance of the Angels in our daily prayers. You will find prayers to the Angels and to our Guardian Angels in most good Catholic Prayer Books.

40 Days for Life: Sept 23 – Nov 1

Especially during these difficult times, we need to continue in our commitment to defend the most vulnerable and pre born children. Please join St. Joseph Parish for your 1 hr peaceful, prayerful witness to end abortion, anytime from 7 am – 7 pm, as visible examples of Christ’s truth that every life matters! Our assigned days are Fridays: Sept 25, Oct 2, 9 and 16 at the vigil site on Queensway (just west of Trillium Hospital on the south side). See detailed flyers for more information, map and protocols at the exit of the parish or on our website.

COINS FOR LIFE 2020

For those who took containers home to collect spare change over Lent earlier this year, if you haven’t yet returned it, we ask that you please drop them off on the “offertory basket” table as you exit Mass by Sunday, October 10th. We thank all those who participated for their generous response and help.

LIFE CHAIN: OCTOBER 4TH

On RESPECT LIFE SUNDAY Oct4th from 1:30 - 2:30 pm, our Parish will participate in the Life Chain with hundreds of other churches across Canada. Please join us as we stand in silent prayer for the pre born and all the most vulnerable of our society. Our designated spot is at Bristol Rd and Creditview (on the north east side from the traffic light going north towards St. Joseph Secondary). We will gather for an hour of prayer while practising social distancing. Signs will be available to carry at the site or bring your own. Let’s be a gathering for something good as we pray to change hearts and minds in our Country. If you have any questions please contact Ann at the Parish Office.

World Day of Migrants and Refugees

On Thursday, Sept 24th, a panel presentation was held to examine the global problem of Christian persecution. Christians are the victims of 75% of the world’s religiously-motivated violence and the panelists discuss why western countries have not done more to solve this problem and how Canada can help the victims. A link to view the discussion is on our Parish FaceBook page.

Living the Gospel through immediate mental health services

Mental health problems can escalate if not addressed quickly. That’s why the five Catholic Family Services agencies in the Archdiocese of Toronto offer walk-in counselling. This initiative can often meet clients’ needs without requiring longer term sessions. Clients report a clinically significant increase in confidence that they can tackle their problems. For some agencies, ShareLife is the sole funder of this important program. Thanks to your support, no one is ever turned away due to inability to pay.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER GROUP

Reflections from the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalkska

My daughter, encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given to you. It pleases Me to grant everything they ask of Me by saying the chaplet” (Diary 1541).

“Write that when they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the merciful Savior” (Diary, 1541).

For a copy of the Chaplet please email us at: dmpgdurie@gmail.com.
