SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Francis of Assisi (1881-1226)

Patron saint of animals and the environment. Francis is one of the most venerated religious figures in history. When young he lived the high-spirited life typical of a wealthy young man. While going off to war in 1204, he had a vision that directed him back to Assisi where he lost his taste for his worldly life and soon took up a life of poverty.

His life of simplicity and service to the poor and sick converted many people to the faith.

St. Francis of Assisi, pray for us!

From The Parish Priest – The Holy Archangels

You will have noticed how in the revised translation of the Sanctus in the Mass, reference is made to the Lord God of Hosts. This of course is a reference to the vision of the Prophet Ezekiel, where he sees Almighty God surrounded by the Heavenly Court of Angels who are continually singing Holy, Holy, Holy. The Preface at Mass goes on to list the groups, or rather Heavenly Choirs, of Angels: Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Powers, Cherubim and Seraphim.

The word Angel is actually a Greek word meaning messenger and the Scriptures tell us of the Angels who serve at God's Throne and do His bidding. Visions of Angels are described by various Old Testament Prophets and we are told of their awe-inspiring countenances (very different from the cute child like images on Christmas cards). We invoke Angels in various parts of the Mass, such as during the Confeitor and the Preface. We echo their Christmas song in the Gloria in Excelsis Deo, and in the Roman Canon we pray "Almighty God, command that these offerings be borne by the hands of your Holy Angel to Your Altar on high." This Sunday we celebrate the archangels, and we highlight St Michael in particular, patron of our diocese. On October 2nd we keep the Feast of the Guardian Angels. We honour the Archangel Raphael, who represents the healing power of God. In the Old Testament he features in the book of Tobit where he guides the young Tobias to his future bride Sarah. He later cures Tobias' blind father. Some scholars identify him as being the angel who stirred the waters of the pool in the Temple in which the sick sought healing (as mentioned in the Gospel story of the curing of the blind man). Archangel Gabriel is the gentle comforter who helps the Prophet Daniel to discern his visions. He is the Angel who appears to Zachary in the Temple to announce the nativity of John the Baptist and, of course, he also appears to Our Blessed Lady at the Annunciation. The name Gabriel is from the Hebrew meaning Man of God. Archangel Michael is the heroic defender of Heaven and the leader of the Celestial Armies. The Apocalypse of St John reports how he does battle with Satan and his armies and conquers them. His name means in Hebrew Who Is Like Unto God? You know the prayer "St Michael the Archangel" which is recited after Mass. Let us not forget to ask the assistance of the Angels in our daily prayers.
