From The Parish Priest

The Gospel this Sunday: today's gospel certainly encourages mental gymnastics. Our Lord seems to be commending astuteness in financial affairs, even to the point of sharp practice. "And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light". It's always tempting to try and strain too neat a punch line or too simplistic a meaning out of the gospel parables. In this case, the message does not seem to be quite a sophisticated one. What's being commended is surely not dishonesty, but rather the resourceful determination of the manager in providing for his own future security. The hint of the real orientation of the parable is given in the unexpected words "the eternal homes". By linking the notion of astuteness with our eternal destiny, the Lord is teaching us that preparing for our eternal future should be approached with even more determination, with an even greater sense of urgency, than the methods with which we manage our financial affairs. To put it bluntly: plan for eternity even more carefully than you plan for your retirement!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Padre Pio

Born in southern Italy, at 15 he joined the Capuchins and took the name of Pio. On Sept. 20, 1918, he had a vision of Jesus after Mass. When it ended, he had the stigmata in his hands, feet and side. Busloads of people soon began coming to see him and he spent most of his time hearing their confessions.
St. Pio, pray for us!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

FEDERAL ELECTION October 21st

As part of the mission to provide us with some background and insight on key issues, the Archdiocese of Toronto has created a series of flyers to help parishioners make an informed and responsible decision on election day. This week's insert is titled: "Poverty". Please take some time to review the information and facts.

In addition to this the Oct 3rd 'Debate from a Catholic Perspective' will be live streamed at St. Mary's Parish, Brampton. Visit www.archtoronto.org/election for a free ticket.
