SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY

Unpacking Our Experience

On Ash Wednesday, we marked our foreheads with a cross of ashes. This event began a 40 day period of preparation. Lent ends with the start of the Holy Thursday liturgy. Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter are 'one' celebration held over three days.

Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter, known as the triduum, lead us into a very intense time of reflection which culminates with the celebration of Easter.

It is difficult to absorb and make sense of all that we experience through the liturgical action of Holy Week: the Word of God, the signs and symbols, the gestures, the music and song. That's why we have the Easter season of 50 days until Pentecost - to unpack our experience.

In the same way we reflect on a holiday once we get home, the Easter season enables us to look back and digest the subtle realizations that have taken place in our awareness.

A parishioner might have thought about his experience of Good Friday and thought - 'no sacrifice-no love' - I have been tired and stressed at work - I have not been pleasant to live with at home - it's affecting my closest relationships - I can see the hurt in the faces of my wife and kids - 'Jesus, help me to make some changes-to be a source of new life-because Jesus is risen!' Each of us will experience Easter in a unique way. During this Easter season, let us take time to discover how Jesus is calling us to die to self and rise with Him to newness of life.

- Father Brian
