THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

It is necessary to be alone sometimes, for the soul requires solitude in order to maintain its individuality, but we couldn't live like that. We need other people in our lives—for support, affirmation, encouragement, companionship. They nourish and sustain us in a hundred different ways, just as we nourish them also.

The word 'companion' is a lovely word. It comes from two Latin words: cum which mean with, and panis which means bread. So a 'companion' literally means someone with whom I share bread. It's not everyone that you enjoy a meal with. Not everyone that you invite in for a cup of tea. There has to be a bond. And that bond is deepened by the sharing of food and drink.

When people invite us to their table, they offer us more than food. They offer us trust, welcome, and friendship. We feel honoured. The talk is as much a part of the fare as the food. Afterwards, we feel nourished, not only in body, but also in heart and spirit.

By inviting us to partake of the sacred food of the Eucharist, Jesus makes us his companions and friends. If we were able to go into the room where Jesus ate the Last Supper with his apostles, we would immediately get a sense of bonding. Here was a group of companions sitting around a table sharing a meal. In our churches, sometimes people sit as far apart as possible. There seems to be a reluctance to meet each other, and if we don't meet, we can't share with one another. What we give to one another here, we get back a hundredfold, but if we give nothing, we will get nothing.

We need Christ—that's obvious. But we also need one another. To be a believer, or just a spiritual person, in today's world can be a lonely business. Here is where community comes in, for we are a community of believers whose common faith strengthens the faith of each individual. Here, we experience our true worth, which consists not in our possessions or achievements, but in knowing we are loved by God.

JUST A THOUGHT....

"The Holy Eucharist is the perfect expression of the love of Jesus Christ for us."
-St. Maria Goretti

FAITH SHARING

We are called to reflect more deeply on God's Word and prepare our minds and hearts, deepen our spiritual lives, and further explore how we are called to action through the Word.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Jesus is our food for the journey.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Reflection & Action

Question for Adults:

When you receive Holy Communion and hear the words "Body of Christ...Blood of Christ" what are some of the thoughts and feelings you have?

Question for Youth:

What does it mean for you that the bread and wine becomes Jesus' Body and Blood during the liturgy of the Eucharist? What feelings or ideas does it surface?

Question for Children:

Why do you like receiving Holy Communion?

ShareLife Living the Gospel by promoting mental health of kids

Jake wrote a story in his grade 7 class that made his principal worry he might harm himself. The principal called his mother and recommended she take him to see a counsellor at Catholic Community Services of York Region, a ShareLife-funded agency. While the boy was very quiet during the first session, he eventually revealed his sadness and confusion about his parents' divorce. As the counsellor helped Jake learn how other kids respond to a family breakup, he was relieved to find out his grieving was normal. Jake started to feel much better. By donating to ShareLife, you're helping kids like Jake find healing and happiness.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org
