The First Communion Celebrations

Throughout the month of May at many celebrations of the Eucharist, on the weekend, girls and boys made their First Communion.

Why not have just one big celebration with all the girls and boys together at a special Mass on Sunday afternoon?

Some parishes in the Archdiocese of Toronto are so big and have so many children making their First Communion that they have no alternative but to schedule separate celebrations.

The ideal is the way we celebrate First Communion here at St. Pius X. A child is with his or her family and comes to the Mass as the family normally does. But on this day, she will come to the Table of the Lord for the first time! The children wear special clothes to mark this special occasion.

You can see that the emphasis is on family. Seven year olds don't drive to church. They depend on their parents to organize and prioritize activities. Parents plants the seeds of faith, God does the rest.

'We become what we receive.' If you want to a good athlete, you have to practice your sport. If you want to be a spiritual person, you have to practice. The Eucharist is meant to transform us but it doesn't happen all at once. It is a journey.

You want to be a top athlete but it doesn't happen overnight. Values like commitment, perseverance, humility and patience are necessary. As someone once said, 'showing up is half the battle.'

Encountering the risen Jesus in the Eucharist, will help you to become the person God is calling you to be and there is nothing more exciting than that.

Lectors' Workshops

The Lector's Workshop continues this coming week. New and veteran lectors were invited to sign-up for one of three evenings the workshop is being held. The purpose of the workshop is help each proclaimer of the Word of God take advantage of his or her natural talent and the church environment in which we find ourselves, for instance microphone, speaker system and building acoustics.

The remaining workshop dates are:

Tuesday June 7 at 7:30 – 8:30

Wednesday June 8 at 7:30 – 8:30

www.saintpiusx.ca Website

Many hours of work have gone into our new website. You haven't heard too much about it because we are trying to fine tune it to our particular needs here at St. Pius X. The work will continue for quite a while and of course will always need to be updated.

Main features of the website will be the ability of parishioners to download necessary forms that have to do with sacramental preparation such as First Communion and Confirmation and Baptism. Another concept, we are working with is an interactive calendar. You will be able to download events to your personal Google or Outlook calendar as well as notify the administrator about events that you would like to publicize. We wanted to create a user-friendly site so that parishioners can offer their time and talent to volunteer.

Your feedback is welcomed.

Parish Finance Council

The parish Finance Council met last Wednesday evening. Details about the meeting were not available at publishing time. However, information will be available for next week's bulletin. Plans are underway to have a member of the finance council make a short presentation at each Mass in the near future.

SL ShareLife

You will be pleased to know that $ 8,883.95 was collected here in the parish last Sunday for ShareLife. It was the third parish collection for the 2016 campaign. This brings our total in parish ShareLife collection to $ 28,885.70

Added to this tally is the amount parishioners donated online.

Thank you for your generosity!

Calendar This Coming Week

Monday June 6 – Theology on Tap (see website)

Tuesday June 7 – Lectors' Workshop 7:30 pm.

Wednesday June 7 – Lectors' Workshop 7:30 pm.

Thursday June 8 – Devotions to OLPH after Mass

The Big Dip

Many parishioners of St. Pius X Parish travel during June-July-August-September. They visit friends, go camping, stay at cottages, tour Toronto and much more.

When parishioners are not present our offertory collection takes a big Dip!

Would you be willing to help smooth the curve?

1. Go to our website: www.saintpiusx.ca
2. Scroll down and click on Donations
3. Click on Donate Online
4. Parish: make sure you put St. Pius X
5. Choose amount (can you cover weeks you will be away?)
6. Choose One Time or Recurring gift

This is just a suggestion but it will really help our bottom line. – Fr. Brian
