Thank you for your continued financial support for the ongoing construction of our new church. With the weather becoming nicer each day, construction speeds up. Please remember to include in your prayers for the safety of all our construction workers.

I would like to remind everyone to be mindful of fulfilling your pledges to our Joint Family of Faith Campaign last year. A significant part of your pledge will help us finance the construction and lessen the loan.

I am very grateful to parishioners who have approached their relatives and friends, even giving their anniversary gifts to assist in the project.

The Holy Father speaks

"Without the Holy Spirit, none of us is able to say it, to perceive it, to live it. Jesus, in other places in this long discourse, said of Him [the Holy Spirit]: 'He will lead you into all truth,' He will accompany you towards the full truth. 'He will bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you; He will teach you all things.' That is, the Holy Spirit is the travelling companion of every Christian, and also the travelling companion of the Church. And this is the gift that Jesus gives us."

"The Lord opened her heart so that the Holy Spirit could enter, and she became a disciple. It is precisely within our hearts that we carry the Holy Spirit. The Church calls the Spirit 'the sweet guest of the heart': He is there. But He cannot enter a closed heart. 'Ah, but where can one buy the keys to open the heart?' No! That too is a gift. It is a gift of God: 'Lord, open my heart so that the Spirit can enter it, and I can understand that Jesus is the Lord.'"

"The first: Do I ask the Lord for the grace that my heart might be opened? The second question: Do I seek to hear the Holy Spirit, His inspirations, the things He tells my heart that I might advance in the Christian life, and that I too might bear witness that Jesus is the Lord? Think about these two things today: Is my heart open? Do I make an effort to listen to the Holy Spirit, to what He tells me? And so we advance in the Christian life, and we too bear witness to Jesus Christ."

Living the Gospel by providing a summer camp experience for young boys...

During his years as a young camper at Camp Ozanam, Niro experienced significant moments of personal growth in his life, which had a lasting impact on him. Later on, he became a staff counselor at Camp Ozanam, where he now has the opportunity to become involved in and positively influence the lives of current camp participants. "When you are with your brothers at camp, it is okay to show your feelings. These memories become important, because these kids really get to know each other and stand by each other. Thank you, ShareLife, for all the work you do to make this possible at Camp Ozanam!" says Niro. Last year, ShareLife-supported Camp Ozanam provided a unique camping experience for 600 boys from underprivileged homes in the GTA.
