Something to ponder....

Symbols are never a substitute for people

"Sometimes religious symbols are in danger of becoming more important for people than the things they symbolise. Today's liturgy reminds us of this – the Church we believe in as we join in today's celebration is not a magnificent Roman building, but a living temple, the Body of Christ, in which God has come to dwell. This is the message of the reading from John's gospel. In the other gospels, the incident described here takes place in the final days of Jesus' life, precipitating that hostility that was to lead to his death. John tells of this incident at the outset of the public life of Jesus, as an indication of the ultimate significance of the Saviour's mission. Disrupting the normal life of the temple was far more than a rebuke for lack of reverence; it was a prophetic gesture. The temple and its worship are now to pass away; what they could only foreshadow is now to be realised in the person of Jesus."

REFLECTING ON THE PASTORAL PLAN OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO

V The Cathedral as Sign of our Mission

In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit. – Ephesians 2:20-22

St. Michael's Cathedral, the mother church of the archdiocese, through the ministry of the archbishop, unites every local Catholic under the heavenly patronage of the great defender of the faithful, the archangel Michael. As the prototype of parish life, the cathedral will lead the way in pastoral care and public witness. The work already underway to maintain and repair the cathedral will continue. We also have exciting plans to develop the area near the cathedral - the "Cathedral Block" - into a place of gathering, worship and outreach, through St. Michael's Choir School, space for outreach to the poor, and a centre to gather and teach, as well as to provide opportunities to engage the world through media and the arts. In a city of diverse cultures and a growing media presence, the Catholic Church must become a gateway of faith and evangelization. Visit www.archtoronto.org/cathedral to view the four goals associated with "The Cathedral as Sign of our Mission".

DEDICAZIONE DELLA BASILICA LATERANENSE

Quando l'imperatore romano Costantino si convertì alla religione cristiana, verso il 312, donò al papa Milziade il palazzo del Laterano, che egli aveva fatto costruire sul Celio per sua moglie Fausta. Verso il 320, vi aggiunse una chiesa, la chiesa del Laterano, la prima, per data e per dignità, di tutte le chiese d'Occidente. Essa è ritenuta madre di tutte le chiese dell'Urbe e dell'Orbe. Consacrata dal papa Silvestro il 9 novembre 324, col nome di basilica del Santo Salvatore, essa fu la prima chiesa in assoluto ad essere pubblicamente consacrata. Nel corso del XII secolo, per via del suo battistero, che è il più antico di Roma, fu dedicata a san Giovanni Battista; donde la sua corrente denominazione di basilica di San Giovanni in Laterano. Per più di dieci secoli, i papi ebbero la loro residenza nelle sue vicinanze e fra le sue mura si tennero duecentocinquanta concili, di cui cinque ecumenici. Semidistrutta dagli incendi, dalle guerre e dall'abbandono, venne ricostruita sotto il pontificato di Benedetto XIII e venne di nuovo consacrata nel 1726. Basilica e cattedrale di Roma, la prima di tutte le chiese del mondo, essa è il primo segno esteriore e sensibile della vittoria della fede cristiana sul paganesimo occidentale. Durante l'era delle persecuzioni, che si estende ai primi tre secoli della storia della Chiesa, ogni manifestazione di fede si rivelava pericolosa e perciò i cristiani non potevano celebrare il loro Dio apertamente. Per tutti i cristiani reduci dalle "catacombe", la basilica del Laterano fu il luogo dove potevano finalmente adorare e celebrare pubblicamente Cristo Salvatore. Quell'edificio di pietre, costruito per onorare il Salvatore del mondo, era il simbolo della vittoria, fino ad allora nascosta, della testimonianza dei numerosi martiri. Segno tangibile del tempio spirituale che è il cuore del cristiano, esorta a rendere gloria a colui che si è fatto carne e che, morto e risorto, vive nell'eternità. L'anniversario della sua dedizione, celebrato originariamente solo a Roma, si commemora da tutte le comunità di rito romano. Questa festa deve far sì che si rinnovi in noi l'amore e l'attaccamento a Cristo e alla sua Chiesa. Il mistero di Cristo, venuto "non per condannare il mondo, ma per salvare il mondo" (Gv 12,47), deve infiammare i nostri cuori, e la testimonianza delle nostre vite dedicate completamente al servizio del Signore e dei nostri fratelli potrà ricordare al mondo la forza dell'amore di Dio, meglio di quanto lo possa fare un edificio in pietra.
