THE SUN SHALL RISE

By Michael Pirri

"[...] the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its wings." (Malachi 4.2b) I suspect some of us are still dealing with the time change from a few weeks ago. If not that, then surely the reality that it is dark now in the morning when you leave for work or school, and dark when you return back home.

The beginning and end to daylight savings time jolts us into paying better attention to our schedules – "what time did it used to be? If I want to have breakfast tomorrow, what time to I have to go to bed to get up on time?"

After a week or two, we're able to return to our regular schedules, no longer feeling shifted or uncomfortable. In fact, we might even take advantage of the time shift to establish new habits, and reinvigorate our schedules.

Since 1856, St. Basil's Parish has been home to people of all ages and needs.

Mothers are welcome to nurse their children in church or provide them snacks as needed. If you need to, feel free to walk with your child in the back of the church or in the hallway off the side aisle. We are blessed because you are all here!

For those who need hearing assistance, devices are available at the front desk. Simply leave a photo ID to borrow one during your visit.

This is, in some way, a great way to think about the Resurrection. Such a fundamental break occurs – what a moment of change! Life before the Resurrection seems similar, but it is profoundly different. “Anyone unwilling to work should not eat [...]For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work.” (2 Thessalonians 3.10-11)

How can we know something which is foreign to us? Those of us who were baptized in infancy will not be able to remember what came before that fundamental moment of encounter. Those who have gone through R.C.I.A. can see the change much clearer, life before their encounter with Christ, and life after.

However this encounter isn't foreign to any of us at all! We meet Christ every week in the Eucharist. So we must take advantage of this encounter to form new habits, to rediscover what was old and mundane in life, and to be shifted into action, and to reinvigorate our commitments to love our neighbour as ourselves.
