LECTIO DIVINA WITH CARDINAL THOMAS COLLINS

Cardinal Thomas Collins will present Lectio Divina at St. Mary's Church on Sunday, June 5th and will start at 7:00 p.m. with Vespers/Evening Prayer.

Lectio Divina ("divine, or sacred, reading") is the name given to a spiritual tradition among Christians over the last two thousand years, in which they attentively and prayerfully read the word of God.

Although there is an element of study in "Lectio Divina", it is not the same as Bible Study, or exegesis, where one seeks to interpret the sacred text through analysis, and with the help of the work of scripture scholars.

In Lectio Divina we seek not to master or grasp the sacred text, but rather through it, prayerfully and silently, to come into the presence of God. We seek to be humbly attentive to God's Holy Word, to savour it, and to let it enter into our heart as much as our heads, so that it may transform us.

One approach to Lectio Divina is simply to move systematically through a book of the Bible, but it never involves worrying about "covering" a certain quantity of text: what matters more is the quality of our humble attentiveness. We choose a small portion of the sacred text, and reflect prayerfully upon it.

Lectio Divina is not intended to increase our intellectual knowledge of the Bible [though it also has that effect]; instead, it is intended to draw us closer to God, and to transform our attitudes and behaviour.

Please mark your calendars and plan on attending this very special event.
