Saint of the Week

St. Benedict Joseph Labre

Benedict Joseph Labre was truly eccentric, one of God's special little ones. Born in France and the eldest of 18 children, he studied under his uncle, a parish priest. Because of poor health and lack of suitable academic preparation, he was unsuccessful in his attempts to enter the religious life. Then at age 16, a profound change took place. Benedict lost his desire to study and gave up all thoughts of the priesthood, much to the consternation of his relatives. He became a pilgrim, travelling from one great shrine to another, living off alms. He wore the rags of a beggar and shared his food with the poor. Filled with love of God and neighbor, Benedict had special devotion to the Blessed Mother and to the Blessed Sacrament. In Rome, where he lived in the Colosseum for a time, he was called "the poor man of the Forty Hours devotion" and "the beggar of Rome". The people accepted his rugged appearance better than he did. His excuse to himself was that "our comfort is not in this world". On April 16, 1783, the last day of his life, Benedict dragged himself to a church in Rome and prayed there for two hours before he collapsed, dying peacefully in a nearby house. Immediately after his death, the people proclaimed him a saint. He was canonized by Pope Leo XIII in 1881. His Liturgical Feast Day is April 16.

Message from the Pastor

Alleluia!

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad. Alleluia!

This Sunday readings help us to see the great plan of God. The first reading roots the New Testament to the Old Testament, the Old Testament is fulfilled in the New Testament. Jesus is the fulfillment of the Old Testament. He reveals and unveils to us the face of the unseen God. He is the face of the Father. Like the disciples in the Gospel, if we allow Jesus to show us the Father, the spirit of God will transform us, will re-create us.

Let us open our hearts to Jesus and allow Him to transform the wounds of our lives with His love and share in His victorious triumph over sin and death.

Ave Maria!
