Saint of the Week

St. Maximilian Mary Kolbe, Priest & Martyr (Aug. 14)
St. Maximilian (1894-1941) became a Franciscan Conventual and devoted his life to fostering devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, as a priest, publisher and founder of the "Knights of Immacolata". Sentenced to hard manual labor at the death camp in Auschwitz, he offered his life in exchange for that of a family man. He is remembered for his prophetic word, "Hatred is not a creative force. Only love is a creative power."

Message From the Pastor

Pax et bonum!

Trust, patience and openness are the things we are asked to be in this Sunday's readings in order to taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

We continue our reflection on the Eucharist and we are asked not to despair even if it seems that our problems are too gigantic for us and as, as if we are not producing any good fruits with our works. Everything has its time, we need to be patient and wait, trusting that God is in control of everything. After all, it is God's battle and Jesus has already won the battle by His resurrection. It is only a matter of time for us to share the victory our Saviour has won for us.

In the meantime, we must allow ourselves to be nourished and strengthened by the Word of God and by His Body and Blood.

Elijah was nourished and strengthened by resting on the broom tree and eating the bread and water given by the angel. We are given more. We are nourished and strengthened by the very word of God made flesh. We are invited to partake in the banquet of the Lord, to eat His flesh and drink His blood. Let us allow Jesus to strengthen and nourish our lives.

Ave Maria!
