A Message from the Pastor

Peace and all goodness!

We continue reflecting on the Holy Eucharist this Sunday. The first reading gives us the story of the Israelites, the people whom God love so much. God journeyed with them in the desert and fed them both physically and spiritually.

In their stubbornness, God showed them His marvelous deeds. In the second reading, Paul reminds the Ephesians that true encounter with Jesus, entails changing their lives. Leaving the old self and letting themselves to be renewed by Jesus. In the Eucharist, we encounter the same Jesus whom St. Paul encountered.

In the Gospel, Jesus invites them to go deeper in their search for Him. What other evangelists would see as miracles, John would call it as "signs". For John, miracles are not the end itself, it leads us to see beyond what the eye can see. These signs point towards the inner reality.

As we celebrate the Eucharist with Jesus, leading us to the Father through the Church, we are presented with the greatest sign that points back to Him. The Eucharist is the source and summit of every Christian life.

Ave Maria!
