Message from the Pastor

Peace!

This Sunday, we are celebrating with great joy the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. This feast sustains us in our journey to this earth. Jesus, the food and nourishment of our souls is the source and summit of our lives. It gives meaning and direction to us and raises our dignity as children of God, heirs of the kingdom of our Father in heaven.

The fruit of the tree at the center of the paradise of Eden, gave us death, while the fruit of the tree of the Cross at the center of the hill of Golgotha, gave us back life and raise our fallen dignity to children of God.

Let us thank God for the gift of the Eucharist and may we learn from this mystery the need for us to share Jesus that we received and to be a Eucharist for others.

Ave Verum Corpus natum de Maria Virginis!
