Our Lady of Fatima (May 13)

The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children in Portugal in 1917. The message of Fatima includes conversion of heart, repentance from sin, and dedication to the Blessed Virgin Mary especially by praying the Rosary.

A Message from Your Pastor

Peace from the Risen Lord!

As we move on to the fourth Sunday of Easter, we are being made aware of the Church through the readings of this Sunday, about the great Mission of Jesus being fulfilled with the Church, in the Church, and through the Church because She is the Bride of Jesus, the Bridegroom. He shares with the Church everything that He received from the Father.

But we can only understand fully the mission of Jesus and the Church if we discover and re-discover our belongingness to the Church. We are the Body of Christ. Being a member of the Church is not only through the reception of the Sacrament of Baptism, but in living that Baptismal promises and letting ourselves be sustained by the life-giving bread from heaven, Jesus in the Eucharist.

The Church, through evangelization and re-evangelization goes out to the "ends of the Earth" to proclaim the Good News of our Salvation. We proclaim the resurrection and give the message of hope because death was defeated by the love of God, Jesus was victorious!

And so we rejoice! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Ave Maria!
