CATECHESIS: If you are looking for the meaning of your life or you are suffering and do not understand why, Jesus Christ has an answer for you! We invite you to the announcement of the Good News of Jesus Christ. We meet at 7:30 pm in the Rectory of Assumption Parish every Monday and Wednesday.

SOCIAL JUSTICE – MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS – QUESTIONS FOR CANDIDATES: One of the main Social Justice issues that our City Councillors have the ability to address is affordable housing. Affordable housing is defined as housing for which a household pays no more than thirty percent of income. Approximately 37 percent of households, or some 42,000 Ottawa households, currently pay in excess of thirty percent of their income on housing. The waiting list for affordable rental social housing in Ottawa has 10,000 names. The "Alliance to End Homelessness" is advocating a $2 million increase in funding each year from 2014, so that by 2018 there'd be an $8 million-a-year commitment. They say 42 candidates are supportive of that. Questions you can ask your local candidate on this issue are: Do you think this amount of money will produce adequate results given the numbers of people needing affordable housing? If elected what do you think you can do to increase the number of affordable housing units for low income families?
