April 28, 2019 - 2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (John 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be grateful and generous. Look for opportunities to share His peace, not only within our local parish boundaries, but outside of them as well. In giving, we receive the peace of Jesus Christ.

Easter season is filled with celebration of Sacraments! We celebrated four children receiving their "first" Eucharist, on Easter Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. mass. There are also nine children from St. Augustine School scheduled on Sunday, May 5th at 10:30 a.m. and some from St. Rita school scheduled on Sunday, May 26th at 10:30 a.m. We have a total of 23 children from both schools. Confirmation will be celebrated on Wed., May 15th, at 7:00 p.m., with Archbishop Prendergast to preside. We have total of 33 children from our parish schools, six of whom are from other schools. The Sacrament of Baptism for our first two children of the year were Marissa (age 7) and Marlowe (age 2) at the Easter Vigil. Also, at Easter two adults from RCIA had a profession of Faith and Confirmation (Nicky and Mitch).

An Easter message, by Fr Richard Rohr ... The seeds of Easter are already found in Christmas. If God can become flesh, incarnating in the material world, then resurrection is a natural conclusion. Nothing divine can die. Easter isn't celebrating a one-time miracle as if it only happened in the body of Jesus and we're all here to cheer for Jesus. That's really not the point, but it is the message most Western Christians have been told. When Christianity split into East and West in 1054, both sides lost a piece of the puzzle.

Quote for Easter season: The Easter Alleluia, by Augustine of Hippo, 354-430 A.D.

"Because there are these two periods of time - the one that now is, beset with the trials and troubles of this life, and the other yet to come, a life of everlasting serenity and joy - we are given two liturgical seasons, one before Easter and the other after. The season before Easter signifies the troubles in which we live here and now, while the time after Easter which we are celebrating at present signifies the happiness that will be ours in the future. What we commemorate before Easter is what we experience in this life; what we celebrate after Easter points to something we do not yet possess. This is why we keep the first season with fasting and prayer; but now the fast is over and we devote the present season to praise. Such is the meaning of the Alleluia we sing." (excerpt from commentary on Psalms 148, 1-2). Copyright (c) 2019 Servants of the Word, source: www.dailyscripture.net, author Don Schwager
