JOURNEYS ENDED/JOURNEYS BEGUN

I have often been asked why priests are moved from parish to parish. Sometimes it is because the priest is asked to take on a particular ministry in another parish; at other times it is for the good of the priest or the parishioners. Whatever the reasons there is one thing that is certain. Leaving a place that has been my home and community for six years is not easy. Beginning again in a new parish is also not easy. This is true for the priest and for the congregation. When I arrived here six years ago we began a journey: at first as strangers on the same road but gradually we came to know one another and we journeyed together. The way was not always easy and it took time to come to trust one another. With the help of God and the goodness of people's hearts we found our way and discovered that together we could build God's kingdom as Jesus taught us. Now this journey we have shared is ending. On July 31st I will be leaving St. Augustine Parish to take another road with another community. Your journey will continue as Fr. Frank Scott begins the journey with you as pastor and spiritual guide for the way that lies ahead for you. This community has grown in many ways over these past six years. The number of people who celebrate the sacraments and the Sunday liturgy has increased and will hopefully continue to increase. Many new ministries and groups have begun, joining their gifts, wisdom, enthusiasm, and service to those of the many women and men who already and continue to strengthen this community. The Holy Spirit has awakened within the people of St. Augustine Parish a desire to participate in the Holy Father's call to the new evangelization. Through the love and support, the commitment and dedication of so many people, and by the grace and mercy of God I too have grown and been enriched by my experience at St. Augustine Parish. Please pray for one another, for me, and for your new pastor; be assured of my prayers for you. It is God's work we are doing in the name of Jesus for the sake of our and others' salvation. With faith, hope, and love, let us continue to seek the Lord and to follow where he leads us.
