PASTOR'S DESK

November 21, 2021- Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

“Jesus answered, ‘My kingdom does not belong to this world.’” (John 18:36)

Life is short. How much time, energy and money do you put into building “your” kingdom here on earth? We all know we can’t take it with us. The real kingdom is in the next life. Yet, how much time, energy and money do you invest in working for that eternal kingdom? Ask God for His guidance. Detach from earthly possessions. Generously share your material goods with others for the greater glory of God.

Countdown to Advent: The Feast of Christ the King today marks the end of the liturgical year, with the triumphant Reign of God in focus. These last days are for preparation, or for 'getting ready" for His coming. Next Sunday we begin Advent with year C readings, highlighting the Gospel of Luke. With the four Sundays of Advent and lighting of the Advent candle; may we prepare for His coming in our lives and hearts. Come Lord Jesus, Emanuel.

Did you know? With all the Environmental issues around us and the Climate change conference a past memory now (closure last weekend in Glasgow), there was an interesting show late Sunday night (Nov. 14) on CBC asking callers what they were doing for "climate change." I was intrigued by one caller who was adamant on how cremation releases many carbon emissions. He is going with an environmentally friendly funeral process. How about going "green?" Did you ever think of being wrapped in a shroud? SAD to hear stories about how urns are kept back at the funeral home (storage) in alphabetical order. Wow! Many are not being properly buried. As for me, just place me in a pine box. Into the ground I will be buried! (Fr Frank)

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Mary and Brendan Walsh, those who are suffering from mental illness, those who are in long term care homes and those with COVID 19.

Food items may also be dropped off at the parish, over the weekend Masses on Nov. 27th and 28th.

Prayer of invocation to the Holy Spirit for an ecclesial assembly of governance or discernment (thus synodal)

Every session of the Second Vatican Council began with the prayer Adsumus Sancte Spiritus, the first word of the Latin original meaning, "We stand before You, Holy Spirit," which has been historically used at Councils, Synods and other Church gatherings for hundreds of years, being attributed to Saint Isidore of Seville (c. 560 - 4 April 636). As we are called to embrace this synodal path of the Synod 2021-2023, this prayer invites the Holy Spirit to operate within us so that we may be a community and a people of grace. For the Synod 2021-2023, we propose to use this simplified version, so that any group or liturgical assembly can pray more easily.

PRAYER:

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

St. Paul's exhortation to the Romans: "Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind" (Rom. 12:2)
