*"You have made us
for yourself Lord,
and our hearts are restless
until they rest in you."*

~~ St. Augustine of Hippo ~~

OCT. 1ST – 26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

What kind of future are you preparing for?

The Gospel is clear and challenging...Jesus encourages us - to think about the consequences of our choices, especially the choices and decisions that will count not just for now but for eternity as well. The choices we make now will affect and shape our future, both our future on earth as well as in the life of the age to come. Jesus tells a simple story of two imperfect sons to illustrate the way of God's kingdom. The father amply provided for his sons food, lodging, and everything they needed. Everything the father had belonged to them as well. The father also rewarded his sons with excellent work in his own vineyard. He expected them to show him gratitude, loyalty, and honor by doing their fair share of the daily work.

Beatification, one step toward Saint ...You may recall in my homily last week I made reference, in my last remarks, on a question Does your life attract others to Christ's side? Father Stanley Rother, an Oklahoma priest martyred in Guatemala, was beatified Saturday (Sept. 23) during a Mass in Oklahoma City attended by more than 20,000 people. Pope Francis named him "Blessed" in a letter that cited his "deeply rooted faith," his "profound union with God," and his "arduous duty to spread the word of God in missionary lands, faithfully living his priestly and missionary service until his martyrdom." His feast day is set for the anniversary of his death, July 28, 1981, which the papal letter described as "the day of his heavenly birth."
