PASTOR'S DESK

October 17, 2021 - 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

Toward an Understanding of the Synod called forth by Pope Francis

Theme: On the Church's Synodal Path of Communion, Participation and Mission

This weekend (Oct. 17) we mark the two-year long Synod with special features in our Sunday Eucharist. As I mentioned last week; Pope Francis has called for a "special synod" with the theme: Synodality: mission, communion and encounter. This first year will focus on the Diocesan and parish level; with reflective questions of discernment, prayer, invoking the Holy Spirit, invoking purposeful listening as a quest for building Christian Community, moving forward. Your prayers and participation are requested; urged to make success of this path and journey of Church renewal!

Maureen and Nicarlo Funai, Ron Choy, Mary and Brendan Walsh, Lidia Curcio, those who are in long term care homes and those with COVID 19.
