October 7, 2018 - Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

“So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.” GENESIS 2:19

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

Beyond the hour on Sunday ... we give thanks and praise to God from whom ALL blessings flow. How will you celebrate Thanksgiving this weekend? We have the way of celebration for all those in attendance this weekend around the Eucharist; the original Greek word for Thanksgiving (Eucharistia: “to show favor for what is good; to be thankful or full of thanks and praise). We have much to be thankful for, in the wake of the tornadoes and storms we've had recently. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all those who are displaced, workers, families and those seriously affected. May God's blessing be felt in many ways this weekend.

Please pray for the sick of our parish and for their families: Cecilia Hastings, Mary Stark, Mary McElheran, Mary Ruest, Barbara Scott, Ronald Choy, Donna MacDonald, Sheila Kelly, Julia Laroche, Ann Adams and Betty Kelly.
