CELEBRATING THE CALL TO HOLINESS

2021: The Call to Holiness

We would like to dedicate the new Liturgical year of 2020 – 2021 as the Year of Call to Holiness. Holiness is closely linked to joyfulness and blessedness. During this year of call to Holiness, may be a time for each one of us to listen to God speaking to us in the Scriptures or in the silence of our hearts, to renew our baptismal promises and to actively participate in the Sacraments of the Church and lastly by our Sacred service to others, we can bring God's holiness and proclaim it to the whole world.

October: 2021 – Our Lady of Rosary

During the Month of October, we celebrate the feast of the Our Lady of the Rosary. This year as we struggle through many crises we face, as we know many people who suffer especially all families. We invite you make a commitment to pray the Rosary daily. It takes 15 minutes to pray the Rosary. We offer this month to all the Youth and young adults. We pray that God may continue to guide and protect them and bless their life.

November: 2021 – All Souls Day

During the Month of November, we remember and pray for all faithful departed. This year as we struggle through many crises we face, as we know many people who suffer especially all families especially at the death of a loved one. We invite you pray for those who have died during this pandemic and pray for the families and friends who are grieving.

During the Month of November, we will remember and pray for all the people who have died in our family, our community and the world. As a concrete gesture of this memorial, we welcome you to light a candle before the altar and pray for them. Please consider buying a Vigil Candle (Cost: $5.00) and write the name of the person you want to remember and pray for. May they rest in peace. Amen.

There will be only one Mass on Tuesday, November 02, at 8:00 a.m.

CELEBRATING THE CALL TO HOLINESS

All Souls Day

- “The saints were real people whose strength to face daily challenges came from the grace of Jesus Christ, showing that everyone can be holy.”
- “The saints of all times, which we all celebrate together today, are not simply symbols, distant human beings, unreachable, on the contrary, they are people who have lived with their feet on the ground. They have experienced the daily toil of existence with its successes and its failures, finding in the Lord the strength to always get up and continue the journey.”
- The saints demonstrate that holiness is not achieved alone, but “is the fruit of the grace of God and of our free response to it... that holiness is not only a gift from God, it is the “common vocation of the disciples of Christ.”
- In responding to God’s call to be holy, and accepting the gift of his grace, means taking “a serious and daily commitment to sanctification in the conditions, duties and circumstances of our life, trying to live everything with love and with charity.”
- The part of holiness is becoming more and more aware of being “grafted onto Christ” and the union of vine and branches. “Then, holiness is living in full communion with God, already now, during this earthly pilgrimage.”

“The Christian holidays (All Saints and All Souls) remind us of the bond that exists between the Church of the earth (us), and that of heaven, between us and our loved ones who have passed on to the other life, the memory of the saints leads us to raise our eyes to Heaven, not to forget the realities of the earth, but to face them with more courage and with more hope.”

“May Mary, our most holy Mother, a sign of consolation and sure hope, accompany us with her maternal intercession.”

Reflections of Pope Francis: Dated: Nov. 01, 2019
