GOD THE SEEKER AND FINDER

WHY rejoice in a sinner? Because God's love is constantly bubbling up, filling us, overflowing, constant and absolutely unconditional. Ask any mother or father who has loved and loved a son or daughter who is living a destructive life—Yes, there WILL be rejoicing, not punishment, when they return! But this kind of love can be a stumbling block to anyone whose pride says, "When you sin, you're bad, and not deserving of love." Well, Jesus came FOR the lost and sinful! Jesus is God in the flesh and that is how God loves. You might as well believe it and move on! In fact, those stories are not about the lost sheep, coin, or son, but about the desire of God the Seeker and Finder to celebrate and rejoice over us when we're found.

What about repentance? Doesn't Jesus also say, "Repent and turn away from sin"? A sinner who is welcomed back is being given the freedom of love. At last the "found" person sees their true self, and feels grateful for being forgiven.

Remember what Jesus said when a sinful woman cried at his feet, "Her many sins have been forgiven, SO she has shown great love." Our love for God and others comes AFTER we realize how much we have been forgiven and how much God has rejoiced over us. But the opposite is also clear: if we do not THINK we have any sins to be forgiven we cannot love.

We should all have the honesty of St. Paul, who admits, "I was arrogant a blasphemer and a persecutor... but I have been mercifully treated... God's grace has been abundant." When we face the facts of our sin and start back home to God, our God runs to meet us with arms outstretched. Then the real party begins!
