Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

Rashida endured years of abuse while living in Egypt. Fearing her husband would abuse their children, she applied for refugee status in Canada. Once in Toronto, not knowing the language, what to do, or who could help, she met an Arabic speaker who told her about Catholic Crosscultural Services who helped her navigate the immigration process. "CCS saved my life," Rashida says. "Today I have money of my own, an apartment, and my children are finally safe and happy."

NAMES FOR THE NAMELESS IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

Dismas The good thief, who died in crucifixion with the Lord, according to the apocryphal Gospel of Nicodemus.

Gestas The impenitent thief.

Longinus The Roman soldier who lanced the crucified Christ, according to the apocryphal Gospel of Nicodemus. Stories of his spear were told and embellished in the romance of King Arthur.

ORIGIN OF THE WEEK

The week of seven days originated several thousand years ago among Semitic peoples of the Near East. It was based on a natural quarterly subdivision of the 28 days of the lunar month. The Book of Genesis in the Hebrew Bible presumes a seven-day week. From these Semitic people the week entered the Greek culture in Egypt. There the days were named after the sun and the moon and the five planets visible to the eye. These names of the week were later adopted throughout the Greco-Roman world.

Sunday – day of the sun

Monday – day of the moon

Tuesday – Tiw's day, god of war

Wednesday – god of Woden's day

Thursday – god Thor's day

Friday – Frigg's day, goddess of love

Saturday - day of Saturn

SATURDAY

Just as Sunday had always been devoted to Jesus Christ, Saturday eventually became Our Lady's day. This tradition was promoted in Carolingian times by Alcuin (d.804). A votive Mass in Our Lady's honour has commonly been offered on Saturday throughout modern times.

HYPERDULIA

Our Lady is given a veneration above that of all other saints. This is because of her unique relationship to Jesus, to the God from whom he comes, and to the church which continues his presence. This veneration, called hyperdulia, is expressed in official dogmas, feast days, and in multiple forms of private devotions on the part of Catholics. Her role as a woman in relation of the mystery of church and salvation is a great importance today.

MARIAN LITANIES

Late in the Middle Ages, litanies seeking Our Lady's intercession became common. This simple and popular form of praying addresses Our Lady by a series of titles with the petition: "Pray for us." The Litany of Loreto, familiar to Catholics, was approved by Sixtus V in 1587. It received this title because it was popular at the shrine of Loreto in Italy. This litany was made popular by St. Peter Canisius. It has about fifty titles for Mary; the most recent, "Queen assumed into heaven," was added by Pius XII in 1950.

ANGELUS By the 14th century, it became customary to ring church bells to remind the faithful to pray in honour of Our Lady and to remember the mystery of the Incarnation. This tradition of the Angelus (Latin angelus, "angel," the first word of the Angelus prayer) imitates the ancient monastic call to prayer by ringing the church bells. It is still popular today in many parishes. A series of Hail Marys, spaced with invocations to Our Lady and a concluding prayer, is prayed as the church bells ring at 6am, noon and 6pm.

"EARLY BIRD" MASS

Beginning Sunday, May 19th we will have a 7:30am Mass in Keswick. This Mass fulfills your Sunday Obligation. Please join us.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are looking for counters and musicians. If you are interested contact the parish office at 905-476-0097.

"And Jesus has this message for us: mercy. I think — and I say it with humility — that this is the Lord's most powerful message: mercy." – Pope Francis
