ST. MONICA - August 27 – Holy Woman – 331-387

St. Monica, mother of St. Augustine, was born at Tagaste, North Africa, in 331. With extreme patience she obtained the conversion of her husband Patricius, a violent and dissolute pagan, who was baptized one year before his death. Augustine, her elder son, remained her greatest problem. At 19, while studying in Carthage, Augustine became engaged to a girl and fathered a son, Adeodatus. For many years Monica stormed heaven by prayers, fasting, and tears. A wise Bishop, told her: God's time will come. It is not possible that the son of so many tears should perish. When she knew that Augustine had left secretly for Italy, she tracked him down as far as Milan. There she was overjoyed to learn that her son had been converted.... In her last conversation, she said: Son, as far as I am concerned, nothing in this life now gives me any pleasure. All I wished to live for was that I might see you a Catholic Christian and a child of heaven. Then she added: Bury my body wherever you will. One thing only I ask of you, that you remember my Soul at the altar of the Lord. She died at the age of 55, and was declared Patroness of Mothers. Her remains are now buried in Rome, in the Church of St. Augustine – near Piazza Novone.

ST. AUGUSTINE

August 28 - Bishop and Doctor - 354-430

St. Augustine, Bishop of Hippo, was born at Tagaste, North Africa, in 354. Despite the prayers of his mother Monica, he grew up in the paganism of his father Patricius. At 17, he went to Carthage, where he joined the Maicheans. He led a dissolute life and and fathered a child named Adeodatus. At 29, he left for Italy. There he was impressed by the sermons of St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan. One day he heard the voice of a child singing from the neighbouring house: Tolle, Lege – take up and read. He opened a copy of the Bible nearby and read a passage of St. Paul: Put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provisions for the desires of the flesh.(Romans 14:14). This marked his final conversion to Jesus Christ. He was baptized by St. Ambrose on the Paschal vigil in 387, being 32 years old, and thereafter resolved to consecrate his life to the Lord. He wrote in his Confessions: O Beauty ever ancient, ever new, late have I loved you! Appointed Bishop Hippo in 395, Augustine proved himself an excellent shepherd and a brilliant write. He organized the clergy in a common life, and wrote a famous rule for religious woman. To the people he said: For you I am a Bishop. With you I am a Christian. One day, as he was meditating about the Trinity, he met a mysterious boy who wanted to scoop the ocean into a hole he had made on the sand. When Augustine remarked that hit was an impossible task, the boy replied: It is easier to scoop all the water of the ocean into this hole than to grasp the nature of God in your mind. After the sack of Rome in 410, Augustine wrote The City of God, in which he said that the fall of Rome was not the fault of the Christians but the just punishment of God for her vices and sins. The great Bishop died in 430 while his town was under siege by the Vandals.

ST. JOHN VIANNEY EUCHARISTIC QUOTES

Feast Day – August 4

“I throw myself at the foot of the Tabernacle life a dog at the foot of his Master.”

“All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison for it is but the sacrifice of man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man.”

“When we speak to Jesus with simplicity and with all our heart, He does like a mother who holds her child’s head wither hands and covers it with kisses and caresses.”
