Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

SAINT JOHN BOSCO BIOGRAPHICAL MEMOIRS

At the age of nine, I had a dream that remained deeply etched in my mind all my life.

In this dream, it seemed to me that I was near our house in a very spacious courtyard where a crowd of children were playing. Some laughed, many blasphemed. Hearing these blasphemies, I immediately threw myself in the middle of them, using my fists and voice to silence them. At that moment, there appeared an imposing man, nobly dressed. His face was so bright that I could not look at it. He called me by name and said to me:

"It is not with blows but with sweetness and charity that you will have to make of them your friends. So begin immediately to tell them about the ugliness of sin and the value of virtue." Intimidated and afraid, I answered that I was a poor, ignorant child.

I asked: "Who are you to order impossible things?" - "It is precisely because these things seem impossible to you that you will have to make them possible by obeying and acquiring knowledge." - "How can I acquire knowledge?" - "I'll give you a teacher. Under her guidance, you can become learned." - "But who are you?" - "I am the Son of this Woman whom your mother taught you to pray three times a day. Ask my mother for my name."
