Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

33 DAY NOVENA TO JESUS THROUGH MARY

You are invited to join the Maple Prayer Group in praying the 33 day novena to Jesus through Mary according to St Louis de Montfort (author: Fr Hugh Gillespie). The novena will guide you in a beautiful way of Marian Spirituality, in the footsteps of her Son. Jesus.

Novena starts February 20th. People will pray the novena on their own each day. You can obtain the novena by: Purchasing a paperback book from Chapters or your local Catholic store or Amazon. ISBN: 978-0-910984-07-2. On your computer using the link below to a site that has the 33 day novena. Go to the "Preparation" page.

<https://totalconsecration.newevangelizers.com/schedule/>
iPhone/iPad users - There is free app called My Consecration. Please note: in order to make the consecration you are required to do the novena.

FUNERALS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Funerals for Catholic have three distinct parts:

The Vigil is the principal celebration of the Christian community during the time before the funeral liturgy. The vigil includes a solemn reading of the Word of God and prayers for the deceased and those who mourn. This is the suitable occasion for a eulogy and for sharing remembrances of the deceased. Members of the local parish community are also encouraged to participate as a sign of concern and support for the mourners. A priest, a deacon or, in their absence, a lay person leads the community in prayer.

The Funeral Mass Christians celebrate the funeral rites to offer worship, praise and thanksgiving to God for the gift of life which has now been returned to God, the author of life and the hope of the just. The Mass, the memorial of Christ's death and resurrection, is the principal celebration of the Christian funeral. There is an emphasis on the baptism of the deceased since it is through baptism in Jesus that each person receives the promise of eternal life. The white pall draped over the casket, the holy water and the Easter candle are symbols of Christ's life which is bestowed through the waters of baptism.

The Rite of Committal Prayers are offered to commit the body of the deceased to its final resting place. When the body has been or will be cremated, appropriate adaptations are made to the prayers of committal and signs of farewell.

May a funeral mass be celebrated with the cremated remains of the deceased person? Yes, the funeral liturgy, including the Funeral Mass, may be celebrated with the cremated remains of the deceased person present. The Church encourages the family to have the body present in the Church followed by cremation, however either way is acceptable.

At the Funeral Mass, the cremated remains, in a dignified container, are placed on a small table provided for this purpose. The liturgy concludes with the final commendation and the subsequent interment of the remains. The Church asks that in keeping with a spirit of reverence, the cremated remains be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or niche provided for this purpose. (National Liturgy Office, "Catholics and Cremation," 1998.)

Does the Catholic Church permit cremation? Yes. Cremation has been an acceptable option for Catholics since 1963. The cremated remains must be treated with respect. They should be either interred or entombed. Scattering of cremated ashes is not permitted.

May Catholics who have been divorced and remarried outside the Church or who have committed suicide be buried with a Catholic ceremony? Yes, Such circumstances of themselves do not exclude the possibility of a Catholic funeral (Canon 1184.)

What is the difference between a Funeral Service and a Funeral Mass? The Holy Eucharist is celebrated in a Funeral Mass, but not in a Funeral Service. A Funeral Mass is appropriate in many circumstances for a deceased baptized Catholic, except if the deceased rarely attended Mass or practised the faith or publicly repudiated Catholicism.

May a baptized non-Catholic deceased receive a Catholic funeral? Yes, in the judgement of the bishop, Catholic funerals can be granted to a non-Catholic baptized person "unless their intention is evidently to the contrary and provided that their own minister is unavailable" (Canon 1183).

THINGS PARENTS NEED TO KNOW

Complete class schedules are posted on the parish bulletin boards as well as updated lists of those children registered for these sacraments.

If your child's name is not on the list, please call the office and make an appointment to see Fr. Paul. Children will be asked to name items in the church and also answer questions on the material they studied with their parents from the book.

A parent must attend each class with their child. Only registered children should attend classes.

Please make sure that you sign-in at the end of each session.
