STS. JOACHIM & ANN

July 26 - Parents of Our Lady and Grandparents of Jesus – First Century

Sts. Joachim and Ann are venerated by the Church as the parents of the Virgin Mary. All information about the two saints comes from the Gospel of James, as apocryphal book of the second century. Ann, whose name means Grace, was probably informed by an angel that the daughter she was about to conceive would be spoken of in all the world. In the sixth century a church was dedicated to her in Constantinople, and from the Middle Ages her veneration became very popular. Joachim, who has been honoured since the 6th century, is often represented as teaching little Mary to read the Scriptures.

“YOU HAVE A SOUL, BE CARE WITH IT”

Chris Pratt Surprises MTV Awards with His Spiritual Rules for Life. He explained what he called “9 rules from Chris Pratt.” Here are 6 of those rules.

1. “You have a soul, be careful with it.”
2. “Whatever it is, earn it.”
3. “Reach out to someone in pain, be of service. It feels good and it’s good for your soul.”
4. “God is real,” God loves you. God wants the best for you. Believe that. I do.”
5. Learn to pray. It’s easy and it’s so good for your soul.”
6. “Nobody is perfect. People are going to tell you you’re perfect just the way you are. You’re not. You are imperfect. You always will be. But there is a powerful force that designed you that way. And if you’re willing to accept that, you will have grace. And grace is a gift.”

From ChurchPOP Editor – June 19, 2018

ST. JOHN VIANNEY – August 4 – Priest 1786-1859

St. John Maria Vianney, the Patron of Priests, was born of a poor family at Dardilly, France, on May 8, 1786. He entered the seminary of Lyons at 20, but found philosophical and theological studies very hard. When his rector expressed the intention to dismiss him, the Bishop replied: The Church wants not only learned priests but, even more, holy ones. After his ordination in 1815, John Vianney was made parish priest of Ars. A remote village of 230 people. He led a life of extreme mortification, and many times he himself did the penance given to his penitents. His reputation as a confessor, supported by his power of reading souls, attracted countless crowds. After spending 14 hours a day in the confessional, he provided catechism classes for the children and moving sermons for the adults.

The persecution of the Devil began in 1824, and lasted for over 30 years. The diabolical infestation ranged from horrible voices to personal violence and the burning of furniture. The Cure of Ars also suffered persecution from other priests, who considered him ignorant and an impostor. At the annual retreat of the clergy a priest called him mad. But his bishop replied: I wish that all my clergy had a small grain of the same madness. He refused any sort of honorific title. In 1852, when he was made Monsignor, he sold the cup and cloak and gave the proceeds to the poor. He also refused to accept the imperial cross of the Legion of Honor and an assignment to a bigger parish. John Vianney died in 1859, and remains to this day the model of all parochial clergy.

Volunteers needed for Sutton Fair Aug 9-12.
