Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

ADULT FAITH EDUCATION PROGRAM

All are welcome beginning October 24 at 7pm in Keswick, Tony Snider will facilitate an adult catechesis to help parishioners refresh and/or improve their knowledge and love of the Catholic Faith. Each month an aspect of Scripture, Church doctrine, teaching or history will be explored hoping to increase our understanding of the Blessed Trinity, appreciating the beauty and majesty of Christ's Church on Earth, and exploring the importance of Our Blessed Mother and the Saints as examples of how to live out Christ's message in order to achieve holiness. Topics: Scripture, Creation, nature of Sin, Fall of Man, Blessed Trinity, Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist, Mary, Mother of God. This will interest those looking to deepen or refresh their faith and those hoping to join the RCIA program next year

THANKSGIVING PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, truly present in the Most Blessed Eucharist, we adore you. It has pleased the Father, that in your all his fullness should dwell, and that through you, he should reconcile all things to himself. Grant us the grace to be truly grateful, for all that our Father has done for us. Grant that we may be truly sorry for our sins, and do penance for them.

Through you, we thank the Eternal Father for the gift of life. He has created all the wonderful things of this world for us. May we learn to use them well, so that through them we may grow in love for Him.

Above all, we thank our Father, for sending you to us, as the greatest expression of his love, to save us and all create, by your death and resurrection.

We thank you Lord, for giving us your own Mother to be our Mother of Perpetual Help. May the countless favours we have received through her intercession, inspire us to greater confidence in God's loving mercy, and her perpetual help. Grant that we may always do the holy will of God, and persevere in His love. To the Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be honour, glory and thanksgiving forever a d ever. Amen.

Do you know who you've been helping through your gift to ShareLife? This past year, over 125,000 individuals have been supported by a ShareLife – funded program you made possible. This includes over 63,000 seniors, 9,500 children and youth, and 15,000 people with special needs. Follow ShareLifeCan on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram to discover all the ways, through your gift, you have been living the Gospel by providing for those in need.

THE BRILLIANCE OF THE FATIMA PRAYER

October 13th is the anniversary of the final apparition of Our Lady of Fatima to the three little shepherd children, Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta. Stephen Bullivant with co-authorship of Like Arredondo, has written O My Jesus, an insightful study of the meaning of the famous Fatima prayer.

Our Lady revealed this short prayer to the children on July 13th 1917, soon after she had given them a terrifying glimpse of hell, directing them to say it after each decade of the Rosary. She had asked for the Rosary to be recited daily, which makes the prayer, as Bullivant observes, the most commonly recited after the Our Father, Hail Mary and the Glory Be. It is a mere 29 words: “O My Jesus, Forgive us our sins. Save us from the fires of hell. And lead all souls to heaven. Especially those in most need of Thy mercy. Amen.”

Each petition is packed with significance and it is worth meditating on them in detail. Bullivant draws attention to much that we unthinkingly repeat, such as that the opening address “O My Jesus” is highly intimate, one that would have been used by Our Lady herself. Indeed, it was never used by the disciples, which gives a particularly poignant power to the prayer of the Good Thief: “Jesus, Remember me...”

“Forgive us our sins” reminds us that sin is common to us all, and that although we are saved as individuals our own salvation is bound up with charity towards others. As the late Pope John Paul II said, “We are all really responsible for all” or as the poet John Donne wrote, “Any man’s death diminishes me...” The plea speaks to us of our common flawed human nature.

The reference to hell in the next line draws attention to the sombre tone of the Old Rite Requiem Mass, in contrast to the New Rite. As Bullivant wryly notes, “Hell” is not popular today, even among Catholics, despite the fact that Jesus mentions it “an awful lot.” As the author points out, the Cure of Ars was known to have spent up to 15 hours a day in the confessional for years on end, solely to help penitents to understand the grave importance of avoiding sin and hell – the logical consequence of a determined, final refusal to kneel in sorrow for sin.

The sentence, “Lead all souls to heaven” has led some, following the theologian Hans Urs von Balthasar, to the speculation of “universalism” – the notion that everyone might be saved. Bullivant disagrees with this, alluding to St. Thomas Aquinas, he writes that “God really does will that all people be saved, even if not all people end up being save.” How could God not will this? Yet at the same time he respects our free will. We should hope for, but not presume on, salvation, our own as well as others.’

When we pray “Especially those in most need of Thy mercy” we are tempted to believe we are praying for others; but as Bullivant makes clear, it is we who are in “most need”; a reminder of the need for humility.
