Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

UNITY WITH GOD

What season are you in? What does God want you to learn from it?

Some seasons are pleasant. Some are too hot. Some, bitter cold. All have one thing in common: they bear lessons; they have the potential to develop us. In all things and all seasons, we are called to clothe ourselves with the Nature of God.

That means discipline. That means resisting the constant lures of the world. That means warring against the flesh and the enemy.

Everything we go through is in the control of a Creator Who knows exactly what we need, where we need correction, what pain we have to face in order to control ourselves and evolve (toward Him).

When you find yourself in the "wilderness," perhaps fatigued, perhaps lost, learn from it; discern from it; ask God what you need to change, develop, or cast away. Purify. The more you become like Jesus, the more you are clothing yourself with the Nature of the Creator.

Don't waste your wilderness! Look at how the desert prepared the Lord. Until we restrict the flesh, we can't walk with God. At every turn, at every time of year, follow the call of the Spirit. We walk with God when we listen to Him and internalize His love.

When in the wilderness, when fatigued, or lost, it is time to more closely listen to God and what He is trying to say to you through your circumstances, in your intuition, or through the words of others.

A key phrase here: "evolve toward Him." That's the goal of life no matter who or what or where you are – no matter the season. You have this in common with the billionaire, with a beggar, with the oldest person in the world, with a baby born seconds ago, with a doctor, with someone unemployed, with a hair stylist, a policeman, with someone who crochets, with a professional wrestler.

Every single person is called to unity with God.

The roads are different, the seasons come at various times – often, very different. But in the end those roads point (or should) to the Throne of the High Almighty God.

An accountant? A bricklayer? A housekeeper? It doesn't matter, points out a convert to Christianity named Rabbi Kirt Schneider.

What matters is heading to the Lord, and the closer we are to Jesus, the closer we are to God.

The Blessed Mother – Our Lady of Mount Carmel, from the highlands of Heaven – assists us in this endeavor.

It is a battle we have to fight every day, to restrict the flesh – hold back lust, anger, criticism, accusation, gossip: those things that chase the Holy Spirit away.

Instead, we have to wilfully choose to speak the words of encouragement and love. Without that, we can't walk with Him.

Gossiping breaks fellowship with Heaven. It diverts us. Look always first to what is in your heart before determining what is in the hearts of others. To walk with God, we have to understand our purpose.

Whenever we choose the spirit over flesh, we take another step toward fulfilling our purpose and toward the Most High Lord. Let yourself know how totally much God loves you, no matter "who" you are. In fact, those great in His eyes are not usually great by the standards of the world. It doesn't matter if you live in Paraguay, or Nigeria, or the U.S., or Jerusalem: your purpose is the transform into His likeness and come unto unity – lockstep – with Him. it can't be repeated enough.

We are created in His image so we are designed to totally receive Him as pure vessels. Until we fight the fight of faith, we will not be in victory. It takes strength to hold back the tendencies in the flesh. But unless we restrict it, we won't be able to walk with God. Engage in spiritual warfare and subdue the flesh and you will walk with Him; you will travel higher.

The purer we are (Our Lady of Mount Carmel, help us!), the more we coincide with Him; the more unity there is.

Once we are in unity with God – once we have our hearts totally to Him – everything is possible.
