Marriages: Marriages are celebrated in the Church where the bride or groom is registered at. When a man and a woman plan to marry each other, they should contact a priest one year in advance and always before the wedding date is set, and before arranging for the reception hall. The engaged are required to attend a Marriage Preparation Course.

Please note: However, if this man or woman has previously gone through any form of civil or religious marriage with another person, the priest is not permitted to set a date for the wedding until the Bishop's office has been consulted. Questions are often being asked about marriages performed outside the Catholic Church by non-Catholic ministers. These are not valid marriages according to the teaching of the Catholic Church, but many can be rectified by simply consulting with your Parish priest to discuss the available options. Sometimes people make decisions without proper information, so if you wish, please contact your Pastor for details or call the Marriage Tribunal at 416-934-3400 ext 300.

ST. HELENA'S DISCOVERY IN JERUSALEM

The Roman Emperor Constantine's mother, St. Helena, a convert to Christianity, went a pilgrimage to the Holy Land to locate where the important events in the life of Jesus Christ occurred, and to preserve the relics of the Christian faith that remained there. One of her goals was to find the place of Jesus' crucifixion and the very Cross on which he was hung.

Through interviewing many locals, and with the assistance of the Bishop of Jerusalem, St. Macarius, she discovered the spot and the True Cross which had been previously hidden by the Jews.

According to the historian Rufinus, the identity of the True Cross was confirmed by a miraculous healing after St. Macarius recited this prayer:

"O Lord, who by the Passion of Thine Son on the cross, didst deign to restore salvation to mankind, and who even now hast inspired thy handmaid Helena to seek for the blessed wood to which the author of our salvation was nailed, show clearly which it was, among the three crosses, that was raised for Thy glory. Distinguish it from those which only served for a common execution. Let this woman who is now expiring return from death's door as soon as she is touch by the wood of salvation."

The date of this discovery and miracle, according to tradition, was May 3rd, 326 A.D. St. Helena had a church built on the original site of Jesus's crucifixion, burial, and resurrection, known as the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Her son Constantine dedicated this church on September 13-14 in the year 335 A.D. Even today, the Stations of the Cross in Jerusalem, or the Via Dolorosa, end at this very spot.

THE FEAST DAY - The True Cross was considered a most valuable treasure of the Church and became a highly venerated object, and the feast honouring the Elevation of the Holy Cross has continually been celebrated until this day. It is celebrated on May 3rd on the old Roman calendar (the date of its discovery) and on September 14th in Jerusalem and on the new Roman calendar (the date the church was dedicated).

THE TRUE CROSS IS STOLEN - The Cross of Christ was stolen by the King of the Persians in the year 614 A.D. after the Persian invasion of Syria and Palestine. In 629 A.D. The Cross was recovered and returned to Jerusalem by Emperor Heraclius of Constantinople and restored to its place in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The date the True Cross was brought back to Jerusalem was September 14th. The anniversary of the dedication of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the date on which Jerusalem celebrated the feast of the Triumph of the Holy Cross.

VENERATING THE CROSS – The Church has a long tradition of venerating the Cross, that's why Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches always have large crucifixes in prominent places. In the Catholic Church venerating the Cross is a liturgical tradition during Holy Week.

It is also why Catholic Christians and Eastern Christians keep crosses and crucifixes in their homes, usually on their wall or above their doorway. In fact, a cross or a crucifix put in a place of honour is a sure mark of a Christian home.

LECTORS NEEDED

ALL LECTORS. (New ones and All who DO the readings during the WEEKEND MASSES). Pastor would like to meet with you after masses in October to update you on your Ministry. Thank you for your cooperation.

(EWTN) ETERNAL WORD TELEVISION NETWORK is a Catholic channel available through Rogers Cable TV – highly recommended.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION REGISTRATION
