In the Gospel passage of the 5th Sunday of Lent, the Evangelist John sees eternal life as something already given to us in Jesus, who is the “resurrection and the life”. This means that true believers in Christ already possess a life without ending and physical death cannot destroy it. In Jesus, who is the fullness of the revelation of God, salvation is already present, and whoever is in communion with Him is no longer subject to death. The resurrection of Lazarus is but a manifestation of the final destiny of all those who believe in Christ.

If Jesus would ask you today: do you believe this? What would your answer be?

En el pasaje del Evangelio del 5º domingo de la Cuaresma, el Evangelista Juan ve la Vida Eterna como algo ya dado a nosotros en Jesús quien es “la Resurrección y la Vida.” Esto significa para los creyentes verdaderos en Cristo que ya poseemos la Vida sin fin y que la muerte no puede destruirla. En Jesús, quien es la revelación completa de Dios, la salvación ya está presente y quien está en comunión con Él, la muerte no lo tocara. La resurrección de Lázaró es la manifestación del destino final de los creyentes en Cristo. Si Jesús les pregunta: ¿crees tu esto? ¿Cual sería su respuesta?

Nel Vangelo di questa 5ta domenica di Quaresima, Giovanni vede “la risurrezione e la vita” come cose già date, in Gesù, nella nostra vita presente. Colui che crede in Gesù possiede già una “vita senza fine” che la morte fisica non può distruggere. In Gesù, pienezza della rivelazione di Dio, la salvezza è presente, e colui che vive in comunione con lui non è più soggetto alla morte. La risurrezione di Lazzaro non è altro che una manifestazione del destino finale di tutti coloro che credono in Gesù. Se Gesù chiedesse a te oggi: credi tu questo? Quale sarebbe la tua risposta?

What comfort Jesus must have given Martha and Mary when he raised their brother Lazarus from the dead! This miracle is also promised to our loved ones when they are called back by the Father.

WORKING WONDERS FOR FAMILIES...

When Mary came to Catholic Family Services (CFS) of Dufferin-Peel, she was overwhelmed and had a bleak outlook at her future. A victim of domestic violence, the single mother of three was also struggling to cope with behavioural issues from her eldest son. Mary and her son were given counselling and support by CFS. Today, Mary is a more confident woman and she and her son are closer than ever. In 2009, ShareLife's network of Catholic Family Services offices helped 116,389 people deal with stress, anxiety, mental illness, domestic violence and troubled relationships.

2nd ShareLife collection – May 1, 2011

Please give generously.
