Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Introduction

True greatness is humble and lies in our willingness to care for those who are vulnerable and less able to fend for themselves, and who cannot repay us.

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Ecclesiasticus 3:17-20, 28-29

Greatness and humility should walk together.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24

We are called to a heavenly kingdom, not an earthly one.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

We are blessed if we are prepared to look after the needs of those who are unable to repay us.

Father Cosmas' Reflection

In His Presence

Lord, I place myself in your presence. After the strain and turmoil of the day I rest quietly here, as a little boat, which has been tossed by the waves and buffeted by the wind, rests secure in a sheltered harbour. Here my projects lose their power over me. A healing process begins. My fragmented self is reassembled, and I am made whole again. In your presence, I experience my true worth, which consists not in doing but being. I surrender myself into our hands. I am at peace.

“O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us.”
