Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.”

Introduction

In today’s Gospel, Jesus goes to the heart of human fears and desires. Anxiety about, or unrestrained desire for, money is often rooted in deep insecurity. God has given us an entire kingdom to call our own, and we have no need to be afraid.

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Wisdom 18:6-9

The dark night of the Passover became light for God’s children through faith and hope. They had to rely on faith, but it was that faith that marked them as God’s chosen people. A people threatened and vulnerable became strong in hope through their trust in God.

Second Reading: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

Faith is the foundation of a life lived in hope, even for people who never live to see their ultimate hopes fulfilled. The scriptures give us many examples of hope-filled lives that built a future for God’s people. Our security lies in our faith and hope in God’s unshakeable love.

Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

Jesus teaches us that what we cherish most is the sign of where our heart lies. God’s heart is set on us, for we are God’s priceless treasure. Setting our hearts on God’s kingdom and its justice will lead us to the deepest union with Jesus and to building a world after his own heart.

RESTORATION OF THE STATUE OF ST. JOSEPH

A few people were wondering where the statue of St. Joseph (in the former St. Joseph's room) had gone. Over the years, the statue had become quite dusty and dirty, with a few chips in the plaster, and the colours had become very faded. The statue has returned! Thank you to Craig Pitts for restoring St. Joseph. The colours are spectacular!
