The Most Holy Trinity

“God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son.”

Introduction

Where do we begin to understand God, who is totally beyond our human capacity to grasp? Let us come humbly before our God to hear what might be revealed to us today.

Today's Readings

First Reading: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

Moses bows before the Lord, acknowledging the guilt of the people.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Paul encourages us to be happy as we live in love and peace with God and each other.

Gospel: John 3:16-18

God's love for the world is such that God's only Son was sent into the world so that through him the world might be saved.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION will take place this weekend, Sunday, June 4, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. Mass. We welcome Archbishop Michael Mulhall and congratulate the candidates receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. A special thank you to the parents and family for their cooperation, and express appreciation to the teachers and members of the team who helped prepare for this milestone.

Father Cosmas' Reflection

On being the leavens of Communion

The great feast of the Most Holy Trinity- the life of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit that we celebrate today presents us with a Mystery that is deep and transcendent. No theological, philosophical or human concepts can explain this mystery. Such concepts can only point to some general truths about the beauty and depth of the triune God. The mystery of the Blessed Trinity is first about communion and relationship of persons that can be known though prayerful union. When we enter into this union and relationship of love with Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, then we are drawn to a deeper and more intimate knowledge of Him. Since we are created in the image and likeness of God-Communion, we are called to understand ourselves as beings in communion and relationship with each other. Such relationships play out in the spheres of family life, friendships, ecclesial communities, social relationships, and work environments. These are concrete occasions and opportunities given to us to enter into Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity and relationships that are humanly rich. May the Most Holy Trinity help us to be the leaven of communion in the daily events of our lives.
