*The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
6 June 2021*

“This is my body...This is my blood.”

Introduction

The solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, more commonly known as Corpus Christi, is a wonderful way of gathering together the themes of Easter. The Eucharist has been described as summing up everything we do and profess as Christians.

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

The importance of blood, shed for the good of others. Israelites give this gift to God from their own flocks and herds - an offering of life to God, the Lord of life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-15

Unlike the multiple sacrifices in the past, the sacrifice of Jesus is a once-and-for-all sacrifice.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

Mark’s account of the Last Supper and the institution of Eucharist: an action whereby Jesus’ gift of himself is made available in every age..

A MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP MULHALL

My dear Faithful of the Archdiocese, today, we begin the month of June which is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I am inviting you to join with me in dedicating ourselves in private prayer and, as a community, to this precious mystery. The continued restrictions resulting from the pandemic will make our communal celebrations difficult. However, it is my prayer that before the end of the month we will be in a better position to enjoy much greater freedom to gather. His Eminence Cardinal Collins, the Archbishop of Toronto, has prepared a beautiful document on the Sacred Heart. I ask that each of you take the time to read his offering to each of us and reflect on the mystery of God's self-revelation to humanity. May this reflection during the month of June, allow us and our Catholic groups and institutions to move closer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Visit www.archtoronto.org for the complete document prepared by His Eminence Cardinal Collins.

“Come to me, all you who labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.”
