PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost Sunday

31 May 2020

“As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.”

Introduction

Today we celebrate the wonderful birthday of our Church. This is the feast when we recall the Holy Spirit being given to the disciples, enabling them to speak the word without fear.

Today's Readings

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

All people heard their own language being spoken by the disciples from Galilee.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13

There are many different spiritual gifts but always the same Spirit.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

The Lord says to the disciples twice, “Peace be with you,” then He says, “Receive the Holy Spirit,” and gives them authority.

Gospel Teaching

Often we seem to lose our focus on our religious and spiritual lives. It seems to us that if things are not going well for us that God has lost interest and cares little or not at all for us. Today's feast is a reminder to us of what it is all about: the Lord gives the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. It is good to notice that in today's Gospel Jesus says, “Peace be with you,” twice. Is it possible or conceivable that they would not have heard this message the first time Jesus spoke, as this was the first time He appeared to them after having risen from the dead? He says it again to make sure that they will get the message and the wonderful gift of the Lord's peace.

After they know that peace is truly theirs, Jesus goes on to gift them with the Holy Spirit. He breathes on them and simply says, “Receive the Holy Spirit.” This gift is given, then instructions follow; Jesus further gifts the disciples, but this time with authority. The Lord entrusts them with the power to either forgive or withhold forgiveness over sin.

While this is going on, it ought to be recognized that they are looking at the wounds in Jesus' hands and side. They are delighted to know that it is the Lord and they are sure of this because they can see His hands and His side. The man who is giving them peace, giving them the Holy Spirit, giving them authority, is Jesus, who was tortured and crucified and died on the cross. This is not a fairy tale, but a real story with a powerful ending, an ending that involves all of us here today. We are here today because this story has been passed down through the generations, gifted by the same Spirit that the disciples received on this feast.

We assure you that our parish is carefully following the Protocol put into effect by the Archdiocese of Kingston in order to minimize the risk of infection in our liturgical practices. The Archdiocese remains vigilant and obtains information daily from local, provincial and federal health authorities, as well as other dioceses, as it constantly reviews its Protocol. For information on the measures which the Archdiocese is taking, I invite you to visit its website regularly at www.romancatholic.kingston.on.ca. There are also links for you to follow to assist you with your spiritual health: daily Mass, prayers, liturgical resources, directives from the Archbishop, etc.

If you wish to continue making donations to St. Joseph's, you may do so by mailing a cheque to St. Joseph's Parish, 392 Palace Road, Kingston, ON K7L 4T3, dropping donations in the parish office mailbox, which is checked daily, signing up for Automatic Debit by calling the office to request a registration form, or sending an e-transfer to stjosephskingston900@gmail.com. Thank you for your continued support during these difficult times.

It is our hope to do this on a weekly basis. Thanks to Rob Gilmour, John Garofalo, Michael Muise and Rob McDonald, whose generosity and expertise permit us to do this.

FREE BOOKS There are a number of books that have been donated to the church, which you are free to take. Once the church is open again, you may find a few of them in the St. Joseph's Room and the remainder are in the book case in the sacristy. Please feel free to take what interests you home to read.

PASTORAL CARE WORKSHOP This workshop would assist parishes to start a pastoral care team, or be useful for those that already have an existing team. Please contact the parish office at 613-547-5004, if you would be interested in attending one of these workshops; and, if there is enough interest, we will go ahead and book one.

OUR COMMUNITY

PILGRIMAGE to the Shrine of St. Ann in Cormac, which traditionally would have been held on Sunday, 26 July 2020, will not be taking place during this year, 2020. Due to the presence of the COVID-19 pandemic, the parish is complying with the Diocese of Pembroke in following Directives set forth by the Canadian Catholic Conference of Bishops, in their cooperation with the civil authorities in the province of Ontario. With the state of emergency in effect in Ontario, it has been asked that all public church events be cancelled until further notice. Next year, hopefully, we will be able to continue with the annual pilgrimage.

OFFICE OF YOUTH MINISTRY The Youth Office has a resource page dedicated to outreach during this pandemic. There are prayers, videos, activity ideas, faith formation, live youth nights, and more. Visit the following website for info: www.romancatholic.kingston.on.ca/outreach

TOTUS TUUS CATHOLIC SUMMER CAMP After much consideration, the Archdiocese of Kingston Youth Office has decided to cancel this summer's Totus Tuus camps due to the continued uncertainty surrounding COVID-19. The safety of our campers and staff is always our top priority. We are hopeful that we may be able to offer some virtual camp experiences this summer. Stay tuned. All families who registered and paid for camp already will be reimbursed by cheque in the coming weeks.
