Fourth Sunday of Easter

“The sheep that belong to me
listen to my voice.”

Introduction

Jesus grew up in the countryside, a countryside of hills and valleys, where he often observed flocks of sheep with their shepherds. In John’s Gospel, he describes himself as a “good shepherd” who talks to his sheep and keeps them safe.

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Acts 13:14, 43-52

Despite opposition, many of the people of Antioch respond to the preaching of Paul and Barnabas and become Christians.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 7:9, 14-17

St. John has a vision of the hosts of believers in heaven, too many to count, from every nation on earth.

Gospel: John 10:27-30

Jesus the good shepherd speaks to his sheep and leads us into eternal life.
