Why are Lay Ministers Important?

Four program coordinators/facilitators from the Institute for Catholic Formation will soon be in your area to speak and answer questions about opportunities for the laity to make a real impact on parish life through formal ministry roles (Pastoral Minister, Coordinator of Youth Ministry, Parish Nurse, etc). You are welcome whether you are simply curious and would like to learn more about lay ministry or whether you are considering formation for ministry. No need to register - just come for a relaxed evening of friendly dialogue! Refreshments provided. All sessions are from 7-9 pm.
May 5: St. Anne, Tecumseh or May 16: Blessed Sacrament, Chatham

~ Readings for May 1, 2011 ~
Second Sunday of Easter
First Reading: Acts 2:42-47
Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:3-9
Gospel: John 20:19-31

"God our Father, by raising Christ your son you conquered the power of death and opened for us the way to eternal life. Let our celebration today raise us up and renew our lives by the Spirit that is within us."

From the Collect (Opening Prayer) for Easter Sunday

Dear Friends:

It is with these words that we joyfully announce the rising of Our Lord on Easter Morning. For 40 days we have confronted the challenges to our faith. We have delved more deeply into the Mystery of the Cross, a mystery that is revealed to us on this great Day of Resurrection. Death has no more power over us. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

It is my prayer that together we proclaim the truth of Christ's victory over sin and death to our community, nation and the entire world. It is my prayer that our words and our deeds be driven by the spirit of Easter glory and that we allow the joy of Christ's rising to shape us more in His image and example. It is my prayer that as we celebrate this great feast, that our hearts be renewed and moved to live our faith daily, drawing strength from the gift of the Eucharist each Sunday. It is my prayer that by coming together each week we will draw the strength we need, as the early Christian community needed, to live out our faith in our changing world. It is my prayer that as we get closer to building for our future, that we not only build a building where we can celebrate our faith together, as one, but that we will build a even stronger faith community giving us all we need to reach out to those loss and searching, and bring hope to the less fortunate, the needy, and be a beacon of hope for years to come.

As Easter people, I pray that Good Shepherd Parish will rise up renewed by the Spirit within us to bring Christ to others.

On behalf of the pastoral team, parish staff, Father's David and Al we pray that God's abundant blessing be with each of you in this joyous season.

Happy Easter, in the Risen Lord

Father Gary Goyeau
