SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

February 13, 2011

For this week I thought it would be good to write a little about COR weekend, being that we have one coming up on March 25-27th at St. Joseph's High School.

As some of you may know, COR Weekend has a long history in our diocese and beyond. In fact, the COR movement has been going on for years. These weekends are a powerful experience for the young people who participate. Currently, our parish shares NORTHSHORE COR with the parishes of St. Anne, St. John Vianney and Our Lady of the Atonement.

I will be the UPFRONT priest on the next COR...please pray for me and that our COR will be successful. Our meetings start this Sunday night and run consecutively to the actual weekend of COR. We are blessed to have many volunteers who are very generous in giving of their time and talent to make this weekend successful. However, we are always looking for more people to help. So if you have made a COR weekend in the past and would like to help on the BACK-UP team they would be delighted. Just let me know and I will connect you to the proper channels.

Also if you are a parent, and or, know someone in grade 11 and up who would enjoy making a COR weekend, I would encourage you to invite them to consider this opportunity. Keeping in mind that COR is a great opportunity for young people to connect closer with friends, family and God, while having lots of fun in the process. COR will stay with them forever!

If you have any questions or concern please feel free to contact me.

Peace

Fr. David Butler
