4th Sunday in Ordinary Time February 3, 2013

Dear Friends:

Over the last few weeks we have invited you to consider some important ministries in the life of our Church. We invited you to consider someone including yourself to be part of Good Shepherd's Parish Pastoral Council. This important ministry helps me as pastor to plan for our future and make important decisions as we play our part in building up the kingdom of God. I hope that you have taken some time to pray about this and that you will personally consider this important ministry or bring forward some names for consideration and discernment.

We also invited you to consider thinking about some men in your life who would be good candidates for the priesthood. Often we see qualities in a young/not so young man that they don't see themselves. Some who is close to God and you has a hunger to serve people. Maybe they have never considered the priesthood and your invitation might encourage them to do so. I can tell you that it was others who would say to me as I grew..."Gary have you every considered becoming a priest"? That encouragement helped me to begin my discernment to enter St. Peter's Seminary. We here at Good Shepherd Parish have not had a vocation in years. Please look around you, maybe right in your own family or close friends there is someone who might be a good priest. God needs us to call forth these men to serve in His Church.

It is hard to believe that in just a few weeks Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on February 13th 2013. We just finished the Christmas Season and Lent is upon us. I want to just mention one important date to you today. As in the past few years the Diocese of London has planned the all day Confessions for Wednesday, March 6th 2012. Every parish throughout the Diocese will once again be offering to you the opportunity to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation on that day. As in the past we will be offering the Sacrament at both sites. Please put this date in your calendar and also take the time to talk to others who may have been away from the Sacrament for sometime. Invite them to join you. In the weeks ahead we will have some material for you to prepare and all the times being offered in our parish.

Fr. Gary
