Sunday, February 8

International Day of Prayer and Awareness Against Human Trafficking

A Message from Bishop Fabbro RE: The International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking on Feb. 8

In response to the plea of Pope Francis, the first International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking will take place on February 8, 2015, the Feast Day of St. Josephine Bakhita, who was herself sold into slavery as a child. Dioceses, parishes and schools worldwide are encouraged to mark this day.

I invite you to take a few minutes to reflect on this serious situation that affects so many men, women and children in our world. Resources have been provided to your parish that will assist you in your reflection. Please take them home and share this information with your family members. Included is a prayer for victims of human trafficking and a call for an end to this scourge against the dignity of all persons.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Ronald P. Fabbro, C.S.B.,
Bishop of London
