Dear Friends:

I want to take this opportunity once again to thank Jim McMahon and his team of people who worked very hard on our fifth annual golf tournament at Ambassador Golf Club. They raised more than $14,000.00 for the building fund. A big thanks, to all those who won prizes and gave them back to the event. I believe this alone brought in more than $1,500.00. Thanks for your generosity.

As you all know the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the Church's way of forming new disciples of Jesus Christ. It's the normative way the Catholic Church welcomes its newest members, but even more important than membership in the Catholic Church is discipleship in Christ Jesus. Through a gradual, complete and comprehensive training in the Christian way of life, the unbaptized come to know Jesus Christ through the Catholic Christian community and they learn to live as Jesus—disciples. Then, as disciples, they continue the mission of Jesus Christ in the world today.

Some people who participate in the RCIA are already disciples of Jesus Christ by virtue of their Baptism in a Protestant denomination. Although the RCIA is designed primarily for the unbaptized, it can also be adapted for use with those who are already baptized, including adults and children over seven years of age.

Participating in the RCIA is much more than going to classes on Catholicism. It's undergoing a conversion to a new way of life in Christ. Although doctrinal instruction is a part of the formation process, the formation of disciples is more like an apprenticeship. The —apprentices— learn the Catholic Christian way of life from being in the midst of the parish community. The entire community helps form the apprentice in the Christian way of life. Herein lays the answer to one of the questions given at the outset: What's the RICA got to do with me? Let's take a look. The entire Christian community is responsible for the initiation of its newest disciples. Here are some specific ways:

As mentoring community. Every baptized parishioner has a role in initiation of our new members. We are part of that mentoring community that apprentices the new disciples. By observing our prayer, words, deeds and actions in the parish and in the broader community our newest members learn what it means to live as a Catholic Christian today. We provide the examples. We are the models. RCIA depends on us because we make up the Christian community.

As sponsors. In addition to the prayers we offer for our candidates and the examples we provide, there are other specific ways parishioners are involved in RCIA. Baptized members of the community serve as sponsors for candidates in the RCIA. A sponsor is an active member of the parish who walks with the candidate on the journey to new, fuller life in Christ. The sponsor supports and guides the candidate along the way. The sponsor is the candidate's personal connection to the parish.

As catechists. Members of the community also serve as catechists (teachers) for the process of initiation.

As members of the Sunday assembly. There is one final way that every worshipping parishioner is involved in the RCIA and that is through participation in the liturgical rites of initiation that usually happen at Sunday Mass, especially in the months before Easter but also throughout the year. There are major liturgical rituals that mark the progress of the candidates who are in the initiation process. These liturgical rites are major events not only for the candidates in the process, but also for the entire parish. During the rites the parish recognizes and celebrates with the candidates. As a member of the parish you are asked to pray with and for those in the initiation process. As a member of the Body of Christ, you also make manifest that Christ is present in the community. You and me are a sign of Christ to the candidates in the RCIA.

I thought this would be helpful information for you, especially if you know someone who is interested in joining our faith or if you yourself would like to get involved. If you know someone who might be interested please have them call the parish office at #519-735-9517 and ask for Sue Bitacola, our Pastoral Minister. Please pray that many will consider this process and join us in the fall.

We need more volunteers to help maintain

ST. WILLIAMS CEMETERY

Over the last number of years we have had a very small number of people involved in the responsibilities of caring for the cemetery. We are proud of our cemetery and we have a new cemetery board and are looking for more people who will aid in all the important tasks of caring for the cemetery grounds, lawn maintenance/trimming and preparing the plots for the final resting place for the deceased. If you have time to help with lawn maintenance and/or the availability to be called to assist with preparing a final resting place for our brother or sister in Christ, please contact Janine Morris in the office at #519-727-3474 or #519-735-9517 and we will contact you regarding our next cemetery board meeting. A big thanks goes out to Stan Alexander who has taken care of the financial portion of our cemetery for many years now and who will be stepping down in the next few weeks to give his complete attention to his wife, Theresa who is now in a nursing home. Also, a big thanks to Ray Chauvin who has single-handedly been taking care of the cemetery, selling plots and preparing graves for the last number of years. He deserves to have some help with these important tasks. I thank the new cemetery board: John Boglitch (Chairperson), Mary Salmon (Treasurer), Janine Morris (Secretary), Bev George (Salesperson & Trustee), Joan Fitzpatrick (Salesperson & Trustee), Ray Chauvin (Trustee), Denis Papineau (Trustee), Bob Gratton (Trustee) and Alex Quenneville (Trustee). Please consider being part of this board. We ask you also to please note that as July 1st 2012 we have developed new by-laws and price list for our cemetery. Once they are sent to the province and we are given permission to go ahead we will make them public in our bulletin and available at the back of the worship spaces. Please note that we have also published that these changes are taking place at the entrance of our cemetery as well as in our community newspapers.
