SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT March 4, 2012

Dear Friends: The

Knights of Columbus
Victor C. Cote Council
#9671
Good Shepherd Parish
Presents
COURAGEOUS

Four men, one calling: To serve and protect. As law enforcement officers, Adam Mitchell, Nathan Hayes, David Thomson, and Shane Fuller are confident and focused. Yet at the end of the day, they face a challenge that none of them are truly prepared to tackle: fatherhood.

While they consistently give their best on the job, good enough seems to be all they can muster as dads. But they're quickly discovering that their standard is missing the mark.

When tragedy hits home, these men are left wrestling with their hopes, their fears, their faith, and their fathering. Can a newfound urgency help these dads draw closer to God ... and to their children?

Filled with action-packed police drama, COURAGEOUS is the fourth film from Sherwood Pictures. Moviegoers will once again find themselves laughing, crying, and cheering as they are challenged and inspired by everyday heroes who long to be the kinds of dads that make a lifelong impact on their children.

Protecting the streets is second nature to these men. Raising their children in a God-honoring way? That's courageous..
When? Sunday March 25, 2012 7:00 pm. Where? Good Shepherd Parish St. Gregory Site Parish Hall. Admission - one canned good for St. Vincent De Paul Society. Free popcorn and soft drinks. This is a great family film. Hope you will put this date on your calendar and join us.

*Please note: Above meetings are held at the St. Gregory Site unless otherwise specified.

This Sunday's liturgy cries out that God enlighten us, that we stay awake in order to see the brilliance and glory of God's revelation and in the silence that we ponder what has been revealed. In this Second Week of Lent, what might God be revealing to us? What needs mending or change or a drastic putting off? God's promise holds out restoration and compassion and love. On Wed., March 21 we will have an opportunity to place those concerns in God's hands, to be refreshed and anointed with the glory of the Divine Beloved. As Peter, James and John went up the mountain to pray, perhaps our footsteps will take us to our parish church where God's revelation will be found in the sacramental life of the Church. Remember the opportunity to celebrate the sacrament of penance (reconciliation) will be available throughout the entire day. In our parish the schedule for the March 21st Day of Confessions is as follows:

- St. William Site: 10:00 am—12:00 p.m.
1:30—5:00 pm and
7:00—9:00 pm
- St. Gregory Site: 9:00 am—12:00 p.m.
1:30—5:00 pm and
7:00—9:00 pm

~ Readings for March 11, 2012 ~

In Memoriam

We pray for the repose of the soul of Josephine Wilder, Mother of Gerald (Judy) Wilder, Kenneth (Laura) Wilder and Patrick (Linda) Wilder and Warren McCarthy, brother of Helen McGuire.
May they rest in God's love and peace.

A number of people have asked for the reflection quotes I had last Sunday. I have titled them Life Reflections. Hope this helps you reflect on life during this Lenten Season.

Fr. Gary

LIFE REFLECTIONS

World Day of Prayer

Everyone Welcome. March 2nd at Banwell Community Church, 2400 Banwell Rd., Windsor at 1:30 p.m. This year's theme is "Let Justice Prevail" and was prepared by the women of Malaysia.

We have taller buildings, but shorter tempers; wider freeways, but narrower viewpoints; we spend more, but have less; we buy more, but enjoy less.

we have split the atom, but not the prejudice; we write more, but learn less; we plan more but accomplish less.

We have learned to rush, but not to wait; we have higher incomes, but lower morals; more food, but less appeasement; more acquaintances, but fewer friends; more effort, but less success.

We have built more computers to hold more information, to produce more copies than ever before, but have less communication; we have become long on quantity, but short on quality.

These are the times for fast foods and slow digestion; tall men and short character, steep profits and shallow relationships.

These are the times of world peace, but domestic warfare, more leisure and less fun; more kinds of food, but less nutrition.

These are the days of two incomes, but more divorce; of fancier houses, but broken homes.

These are the days of quick trips, disposable diapers, throwaway morality, one-night stands, and pills that do everything from cheer, to quiet, to kill.

It is a time when there is too much in the show window, but not enough in the stockroom.

We have bigger houses and smaller families, more conveniences, but less time; we have more degrees, but less common sense; more knowledge, but less judgment; more experts, but more problems; more medicine, but less wellness.

We spend too recklessly, laugh too little, drive too fast, become too angry too quickly, stay up too late, get up too tired, read too seldom, watch too much television, and pray too seldom.

We have multiplied our possessions, but reduced our values.

We talk too much, love too seldom, and lie too often.

We have learned how to make a living, but not a life; we have added years to our life, but not life to our years.

We have been all the way to the moon and back, but have trouble crossing the street to meet a new neighbor.

We have conquered outer space, but not conquered inner space; we have done larger things, but not better things; we have cleaned up the air, but polluted the soul;
