4th Sunday of Easter ~ May 11, 2014

Dear Friends;

On this fourth Sunday of Easter we are celebrating World Day of Prayer for Vocations and our feast day, Good Shepherd Sunday. On this day, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations.

I am excited to share with you today that we have been asked to journey with a Seminarian from St. Peter's Seminary. Glen Ball has completed his third year of theology and soon will begin his internship year. What is this year all about? Well we are all being asked to help form Glen as he continues to discern his call to the priesthood. I was at St. Peter's Seminary April 28-29 to learn how best to support and work with Glen during his time with us. We are being asked to give Glen as many parish experiences as possible. Glen will be shadowing me and the pastoral team for the next year and leaning about parish life. Glen is looking forward to being with us and I know you will welcome him, support him and pray for him. Glen will be sending me a biography of himself which I will share with you so you can get to know him a bit even before he arrives in late August. Glen is now on a hospital course for the next few months. I thank Bishop Fabbro and the Seminary for allowing us to journey with this young man. It is good to know that Christ the Good Shepherd continues to call young people to the priesthood. Let us never cease praying for vocations to the priesthood, religious life, missions, good Christian Marriages and the single life. As you read the insert last weekend from St. Peter's Seminary this Sunday, World Day of Prayer for Vocations, is our annual Seminary Collection. If you haven't given please consider a donation to the Seminary. Your generosity will help educate and form men to serve in our diocese and Canada. Please make your cheque out to Good Shepherd Parish - St. Peter's Seminary. I thank you in advance for your gift.

Today is also Mother's day. I often pray the following prayer and invite you to pray it often. Moms may your family honour you today. Happy Mothers day! Father Gary

God our Creator, we pray:

for new mothers, coming to terms with new responsibility;

for expectant mothers, wondering and waiting;

for those who are tired, stressed or depressed;

for those who struggle to balance the tasks of work and family;

for those who are unable to feed their children due to poverty;

for those whose children have physical, mental or emotional disabilities;

for those who have children they do not want;

for those who raise children on their own;

for those who have lost a child;

for those who care for the children of others;

for those whose children have left home;

and for those whose desire to be a mother has not been fulfilled.

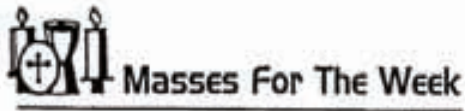

Bless all mothers, that their love may be deep and tender, and that they may lead their children to know and do what is good, living not for themselves alone, but for God and for others.

Amen.
