5th Sunday of Easter May 18, 2014

Dear Friends;

This week from May 20-22 the Diocese is offering a three day Preaching Institute titled, "Were not our hearts burning within us – Luke 24:32", for Priests, Permanent Deacons, Pastoral Ministers, and Coordinators of Youth Ministry. We have never had an opportunity like this before and because of a grant, there will be no expense to the parish. Therefore, I will be attending with our two deacons Rick Heath and Roy Brothers, Sue Bitacola, our Pastoral Minister and Marguerite Hewer, Coordinator of Youth Ministry. Father Al has generously offered to celebrate the Masses so I can attend. Many have asked me where is Fr. Antony? Sorry you missed the announcement, but Fr. Antony left for India on Easter Monday. He will be returning late Tuesday May 20th. Can't believe a month has flown by. I pray he has had a good visit and enjoyable time with family, friends and his Religious Community. With jet lag he will not be attending the conference but we will share our experience with him. With Fr. Antony returning this week I will be leaving on May 23rd and returning on June 5th. I am looking forward to sometime to read and relax.

As I mentioned in the April 27th 2014 bulletin, the Building Committee of Good Shepherd Parish was pleased to announce that the Committee of Adjustment from the Town of Lakeshore approved all variances and severance applications associated with the land we are designing our church to be located on. We had another meeting with the Town of Lakeshore on May 7th 2014, and have all in place but need to up-date our traffic study which will take place soon and then we can go for site plan approval. This has been a long process and I can't thank you enough for your prayers and patience. I will keep you informed as we move ahead.

Have a great Victoria Day, our mother of Confederation. If you are travelling drive safely.

Fr. Gary
